Commenced on 30 December 1922

[Note: This legislation was revised and consolidated as at 31 December 2000 and 31 December 2023 by the Law Reform Commission of Uganda. All subsequent amendments have been researched and applied by Laws.Africa for ULII.]

Amended by [Law Revision \(Miscellaneous Amendments\) Act, 2023 \(Act 17 of 2023\) on 28 July 2023]

An Act relating to the straying of animals.

[Cap. 221 (Revised Edition, 1964); Cap. 40 (Revised Edition, 2000); Act 17/2023]

1. Interpretation

In this Act, "currency point" has the value assigned to it in the Schedule to this Act.

2. Power to seize straying animals

- (1) An administrative, veterinary or police officer or inspecting officer may seize any animal found straying, or any animal of which he or she has reason to believe the owner refuses to take and keep charge, and may order that animal to be taken immediately into any area or place, or he or she may remove the animal to any pound, enclosure or other place selected by a veterinary officer and detain it there subject to the orders of a magistrate.
- (2) Any seizure and detention made under this section shall with all practicable speed be reported by the official making it to a magistrate having jurisdiction in the area within which the seizure has been made.

3. Disposal of straying animals

Whenever it is reported to a magistrate that any animal has been seized and detained under section 2, but that the owner of the animal is unknown or cannot be found, the magistrate may, if satisfied by evidence on oath that the owner is unknown or cannot be found, make such order for the detention, sale or disposal of the animal and of the proceeds therefrom, if any, as he or she may think fit; but—

- (a) no order shall be made unless the owner, if his or her name and whereabouts are known, of the animal has had an opportunity of appearing before the magistrate to show cause why the order should not be made; and
- (b) if it appears that the owner is willing to take and keep charge of the animal, the magistrate may make such an order releasing the animal to the owner on payment of the expenses incurred in connection with the animal as shall be stated by the magistrate in the order and, in addition, if the magistrate thinks fit, of a fine not exceeding five currency points for each animal.

4. Power to amend Schedule

The Minister responsible for finance may, by statutory instrument, with the approval of Cabinet, amend the Schedule to this Act.

Schedule (Sections 1, 4)

Currency point

A currency point is equivalent to twenty thousand shillings.
