 - (h) to determine the Organisation's structure and staffing and terms and conditions of service of its employees;
 - (i) to make or approve senior staff appointments;
 - (j) to perform any other functions as may be recommended to the Minister by the Board.
- (2) The Minister may in writing direct the Board to submit a report on any matter affecting the affairs of the Organisation.

Part IV – Cotton production

8. Isolated and segregated areas

- (1) The Minister responsible for agriculture may, by statutory instrument, declare any area a segregated area and direct, in respect of such area—
 - (a) the type of variety of cotton seed that may be planted in that area;
 - (b) that all cotton plants, cotton seed, seed cotton or lint cotton that may be prohibited from being exported from or imported into the area or the manner in which or the route by which any such cotton plant, cotton seed, seed cotton or lint cotton may be exported from or imported into the area; and
 - (c) at which ginnery or ginneries, the seed cotton produced in the area shall be ginned.
- (2) Any person who contravenes any direction of the Minister responsible for agriculture made under subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding fifty currency points.
- (3) The Minister responsible for agriculture may, by statutory instrument, prohibit the planting of unauthorised cotton seed within an area either for a specified period or until the revocation of that instrument.

- (4) Any person who plants unauthorised cotton in an isolated area during the operation of the instrument declaring it so, commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred currency points.

9. Establishment of cotton zones

The Minister responsible for agriculture may, by statutory instrument, in consultation with the Organisation, set out zones for cultivation and may restrict movement of cotton into and out of those zones.

10. Distribution and planting of cotton seed

- (1) The Organisation shall, in liaison with the Ministry responsible for agriculture, annually cause certified cotton seed to be distributed to cotton growers for purposes of planting.
- (2) The distribution of cotton seed under subsection (1) shall be made through persons duly authorised, and no person shall dress and distribute certified cotton seed without a written authority from the Organisation.
- (3) A person shall not plant cotton seed other than seed which the Organisation, in liaison with the Ministry responsible for agriculture, has caused to be distributed.
- (4) The Organisation, in consultation with the Ministry responsible for agriculture, may require any ginner or any other person to set aside for distribution to growers any cotton seed in his or her possession and may require any ginner to produce any cotton seed required for distribution in advance of any other cotton seed that he or she is producing through ginning raw cotton.
- (5) The Organisation, in consultation with the Ministry responsible for agriculture, may require any ginner to distribute any cotton seed whether set aside at his or her ginnery or any other ginnery for distribution to growers in the neighbourhood of his or her ginnery or to dispatch any cotton seed set aside for distribution at his or her ginnery to any other place in Uganda.
- (6) Any person who contravenes a provision of this section or fails to comply with any direction of the Organisation made under this section commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding five currency points.

11. Power to prohibit movement of cotton seed

- (1) The Minister responsible for agriculture may, in consultation with the Organisation and by general notice in the Gazette, prohibit the export or import of cotton seed either generally or from any specified area for a specified period or until a further general notice is issued in that behalf.
- (2) Any person who moves or is responsible for the movement of cotton seed in contravention of subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred currency points.

12. Destruction of pestiferous cotton seed

- (1) The Minister responsible for agriculture may, in consultation with the Organisation, by notice in writing, direct the owner or any person having charge of any cotton seed or plant harbouring or likely to harbour any cotton pest or cotton disease to destroy such cotton seed or cotton plant either within any specified time or forthwith and in any specified manner.
- (2) Any person who without reasonable excuse fails to comply with the notice issued under subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding fifty currency points.
- (3) Any authorised officer may enter any premises in which any seed in respect of which a notice has been issued under subsection (1) and destroy such seed or plant immediately if the person upon whom such notice has been served has failed to comply with its provisions.

- (4) Notwithstanding subsection (1), if any authorised officer is of the opinion that any cotton seed or plant is harbouring any cotton pest or cotton disease of such a nature that such seed or plant should be destroyed immediately, he or she may order and supervise the destruction of the seed or plant immediately.
- (5) No compensation shall be payable in respect of any cotton seed or plant destroyed in accordance with any of the provisions of this section.

13. Minister may order destruction of cotton plants, etc.

- (1) The Minister responsible for agriculture may, by statutory instrument, in consultation with the Organisation, fix a date prior to which all cotton plants in a specified area shall be uprooted and destroyed in that year and may, in the same instrument, fix a date later in point of time before which no cotton may be planted in that area.
- (2) Upon the issue of an instrument under subsection (1), it shall be the duty of every occupier of land in that area to uproot and destroy by fire or any other method prescribed in the instrument any cotton plants growing at the time of the publication of the instrument or between that time and the date before which cotton may not be planted as specified in subsection (1).

14. Offence and penalty relating to destruction and planting of cotton plants

Any person who contravenes the provisions of any instrument published under section 13 commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding twenty-five currency points.

15. Exemption

The Minister responsible for agriculture may, in consultation with the Organisation, exempt any person from compliance with the provisions of any instrument published under section 13 if he or she is satisfied that the exemption is desirable for the purpose of scientific or experimental work.

Part V – Regulation of marketing and processing of cotton

16. Registration to engage in marketing and processing of cotton

- (1) On application by any person, the Organisation may, in accordance with regulations made under this Act, register that person to undertake the following—
 - (a) dealing in cotton seed;
 - (b) dealing in seed cotton;
 - (c) operating a ginnery;
 - (d) dealing in lint cotton; and
 - (e) exporting lint.
- (2) The Organisation may refuse to register an applicant under subsection (1) if the application does not meet the requirements prescribed and may revoke or suspend a registration where the registered person fails to comply with the terms and conditions of the registration, and the revocation or suspension shall be in addition to any other penalty to which the registered person may be liable under this Act.
- (3) A person shall not be refused registration solely by reason that he or she has not previously been engaged in any of the activities.
- (4) A person aggrieved by any refusal, revocation or suspension of a registration may appeal to the Board against the decision, and the Board's decision shall be ratified by the Minister.

- (5) A registration issued under this section shall be valid for one year but shall be renewable on payment of the prescribed fee.
- (6) The Minister shall, on recommendation of the Board, issue a statutory instrument prescribing the terms and conditions for registration, and the Organisation shall prescribe—
 - (a) the form and method of application for registration under this section; and
 - (b) the fee payable on the issuing of the registration.
- (7) Every holder of a registration shall forward to the Organisation all information that the Organisation shall prescribe.

17. Other offences and penalties

Any person who contravenes a provision of this Act or a condition of any registration commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred currency points and cancellation of the registration by the organisation.

18. Replacement of lost or destroyed registration

If a registration issued under this Act is lost or destroyed, the holder of the registration may apply to the Organisation with proof to the satisfaction of the Organisation of the loss or destruction of the registration, and the Organisation shall issue a certified copy of the registration on payment of a prescribed fee; and the certified copy of the registration shall be a registration for the purpose of this Act.

19. Cotton marketing season

The Organisation shall, in consultation with the Ministry responsible for trade and industry, announce the commencement and closure of the cotton marketing season.

20. Duties of registered ginner

- (1) A person shall not gin raw cotton or bale lint cotton unless he or she has been registered under section 16.
- (2) Except where the Organisation has given a written authority, a registered ginner shall gin, and bale cotton grown in the zone in which the ginnery is situated.
- (3) Every registered ginner shall forward to the Organisation and to the Ministry responsible for agriculture within twenty-one days after completing ginning details of all cotton ginned; and such details shall specify—
 - (a) the quantities ginned during the season;
 - (b) the grades into which these quantities are classified;
 - (c) the appropriate ginning out-turn.
- (4) Any person who fails to comply with subsection \(3\) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding five hundred currency points.

21. Records of transactions

- (1) A person who buys or collects seed cotton, cotton seed and lint shall keep on the premises in which such cotton is purchased or collected proper books in which shall be recorded in duplicate day by day the following particulars of each individual transaction—
 - (a) the name of the seller or owner;
 - (b) the grade of cotton;

- (c) the weight of the cotton and the container;
 - (d) the destination to which such cotton is dispatched.
- (2) A person under obligation to keep books under subsection (1) shall forward such records to the Organisation and the Ministry responsible for agriculture once every month.
- (3) Any person who contravenes the provisions of this section or who fails to produce the said books when called upon to do so by any inspecting officer commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding fifty currency points.

Part VI – Staff of Organisation

22. Managing Director

- (1) There shall be a managing director of the Organisation who shall be appointed by the Board on terms and conditions that the Board may determine.
- (2) The Managing Director shall be the chief executive of the Organisation and shall be responsible for the day-to-day operations of the Organisation.
- (3) Subject to the provisions of this Act and the general supervision and control of the Board, the Managing Director shall be responsible for the management of the funds, property and business of the Organisation and for the administration, organisation and control of the staff of the Organisation.
- (4) The Managing Director shall be a member of the Board.
- (5) The Managing Director shall, in writing, keep the Board and the Minister informed of the progress of the business of the Organisation.

23. Secretary

- (1) The Organisation shall have a Secretary who shall be appointed by the Board on terms and conditions that the Board may determine.
- (2) In addition to any other functions that may be conferred upon the Secretary by the Board, the Secretary shall have the custody of the seal of the Organisation and be responsible for—
 - (a) the taking of the minutes of the meetings of the Board; and
 - (b) the keeping of the records of all activities of the Organisation.
- (3) In the performance of his or her functions under this Act, the Secretary shall, except where the Board otherwise directs, be responsible to the Managing Director.

24. Other staff

- (1) There shall be other officers and employees of the Organisation as the Board may determine.
- (2) The Board may, on terms and conditions it deems fit and with the approval of the Minister, fix remuneration, grant pensions, gratuities or other benefits on retirement or termination of service of the officers and employees of the Organisation and may require them to contribute to any pension, provident fund or superannuation scheme.

25. Protection against civil liability

Nothing done by an officer or employee of the Organisation shall, if done bona fide for the purpose of putting the provisions of this Act into effect, subject him or her to any civil liability.

Part VII – Financial and other matters

26. Funds of Organisation

- (1) The funds of the Organisation shall consist of—
 - (a) money appropriated by Parliament;
 - (b) all money received by the Organisation from the sale of cotton seeds for planting;
 - (c) all money received by the Organisation for registration, goods or services provided under this Act;
 - (d) money received for testing and classifying lint for the issue of test certificates;
 - (e) all money borrowed by the Organisation;
 - (f) a cess not exceeding two percent on the sales value of lint cotton sold at every ginnery;
 - (g) any other money received by or made available to the Organisation for the purpose of performing its functions under this Act.
- (2) The Minister may, by statutory instrument, vary or rescind the percentage of the cess charged under subsection (1)(f).

27. Organisation to operate on sound principles

The Organisation shall perform its functions in accordance with sound financial principles.

28. Estimates

- (1) The Managing Director shall, not later than three months before the end of each financial year, prepare and submit to the Board for its approval estimates of income and expenditure of the Organisation for the next ensuing year and may, at any time before the end of a financial year, prepare and submit to the Board for approval any estimates supplementary to the estimates of a current year.
- (2) No expenditure shall be made out of the funds of the Organisation unless that expenditure is part of the expenditure approved by the Board under the estimates for the financial year in which that expenditure is to be made or in the estimates supplementary to that year's estimates.

29. Accounts, audit and annual report

- (1) The Organisation shall keep proper accounts and records of its transactions and affairs and shall ensure that all money received is properly accounted for, all payments of its money are correctly made and properly authorised, and that adequate control is maintained over its property and over the incurring of liabilities by the Organisation.
- (2) The annual accounts of the Organisation shall be audited by the Auditor General or any qualified firm of accountants appointed by the Auditor General.
- (3) The Organisation shall, within three months after the end of each financial year, submit—
 - (a) to the Minister an annual report in respect of that year containing—
 - (i) financial statements;
 - (ii) general information about the cotton subsector, cultivation, production, export and local sales;
 - (iii) a report on the operations of the Organisation; and

- (iv) other information as the Minister may, prior to the completion of the annual report or any supplement to the report, request in writing;
 - (b) to the Auditor General or the firm of accountants appointed under subsection (2) the accounts of the Organisation for the financial year ended, and the Auditor General or firm shall audit the accounts of the Organisation and, within two months of the receipt by him or her of the accounts, submit his or her opinion to the Minister and the Board.
- (4) The Minister shall cause copies of each annual report together with a copy of the opinion of the Auditor General or the firm of accountants to be laid before Parliament within three months after he or she has received them.

Part VIII – Miscellaneous

30. Ministries, departments, etc. to cooperate with Organisation

Every Ministry, department, other division of the Government, parastatal body or private company shall afford the Organisation all reasonable opportunity for consultation and shall, subject to any law, provide the Organisation with any information that the Organisation may require.
