Uganda

Financial Institutions Act Chapter 57

Published in Uganda Gazette 14 on 26 March 2004

Assented to on 21 March 2004

Commenced on 26 March 2004

[This is the version of this document at 31 December 2023.]

[Note: This legislation was revised and consolidated as at 31 December 2000 and 31 December 2023 by the Law Reform Commission of Uganda. All subsequent amendments have been researched and applied by Laws.Africa for ULII.]

Amended by [Financial Institutions \(Amendment of Third Schedule\) Instrument, 2022 \(Statutory Instrument 110 of 2022\) on 14 October 2022]

An Act to provide for the regulation, control and discipline of financial institutions by Bank of Uganda; to provide for Islamic banking, bancassurance, agent banking and for related matters.

Revisers' note: The Constitutional Court in [Peter Sajjabi and Swift Commercial Establishment Ltd Vs Attorney General and Bank of Uganda, Constitutional Petition No 51 of 2013 declared that sections 128 and 134 of the Financial Institutions Act are inconsistent with and in contravention of Articles 2,20(2), 21,22,28(1), 28(3)(a), 42,44(c) and 126 of the Constitution.]

Part II – Licensing

3. Prohibitions against transacting financial institution business

- (1) A person shall not transact any deposit-taking or other financial institution business in Uganda without a valid licence granted for that purpose under this Act.

- (2) No person shall be granted a licence to transact business as a financial institution unless it is a company within the meaning of this Act.
- (3) A person licensed to carry out financial institution business may carry out the licensed business through an agent.
- (4) The Bank of Uganda shall, in consultation with the Minister, make regulations in respect of agents and agent banking.
- (5) A financial institution shall not—
 - (a) transact or hold itself out as conducting any financial institution business not specified in its licence;
 - (b) effect any major changes or additions to its licensed business or principal activities without the approval of the Bank of Uganda;
 - (c) hold itself out as a financial institution listed in Schedule 2 to this Act or an Islamic bank or other Islamic financial institution unless it holds the appropriate licence; or
 - (d) enter into Islamic contracts or otherwise conduct Islamic financial business which is not in accordance with this Act.
- (6) For purposes of this section, “deposit” means a sum of money paid on terms—
 - (a) under which it will be repaid, with or without interest, premium or other economic return, and either on demand or at a time or in circumstances agreed by or on behalf of the person making the payment and the person receiving it; and
 - (b) which are not referable to the provision of property or services or the giving of security.
- (7) For the purposes of subsection (6)(b), money is paid on terms which are referable to the provision of property or services or to the giving of security only if—
 - (a) it is paid by way of advance or part payment under a contract for the sale, hire or other provision of property or services and is repayable only where the property is not or services are not in fact sold, hired or otherwise provided;
 - (b) it is paid by way of security for the performance of a contract or by way of security in respect of loss which may result from the non-performance of a contract; or
 - (c) without prejudice to paragraph (b), it is paid by way of security for the delivery up or return of any property whether in a particular state of repair or otherwise.
- (8) For the purposes of this section, “deposit” does not include—
 - (a) a sum paid by the Bank of Uganda or the sums paid to a cooperative society; or
 - (b) a sum paid by a person to an associate of that person.
- (9) For the purposes of this section, a business is a deposit-taking business if—
 - (a) in the course of the business money received by way of deposit is lent to others; or
 - (b) any other activity of the business is financed, wholly or to any material extent, out of the capital of or the interest on money received by way of deposit.
- (10) Notwithstanding subsection (9)(a) and (b), a business is not a deposit-taking business for the purposes of this section if any deposits accepted by the business, are accepted only on particular occasions, whether or not involving the issue of debentures or other securities.
- (11) For the purposes of subsection (9), all the activities which a person carries on by way of business shall be regarded as a single business carried on by that person.

- (12) In determining, for the purposes of subsection (10), whether deposits are accepted only on particular occasions, regard shall be had to the frequency of those occasions and to any characteristics distinguishing them from each other.
- (13) Any person who contravenes subsection (1), commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding three hundred fifty currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or both.
- (14) A person convicted of an offence under subsection (13) shall be disqualified from acquiring a licence under this Act and under any other law authorising the taking of deposits.

4. Deposit advertisements

- (1) Any person who issues any advertisement, brochure, circular or other document inviting or intended to induce another person to make a deposit, which—
 - (a) falsely represents that other person as authorised to accept deposits or is otherwise licensed under this Act; or
 - (b) is contrary to the regulations issued by the Bank of Uganda under this section,commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding three hundred fifty currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or both.
- (2) The Bank of Uganda may at any time direct in writing any person to withdraw, amend, or refrain from issuing any advertisement, brochure, circular or other document relating to deposits which, in its sole discretion, it considers to be misleading.
- (3) Any person who, without lawful excuse, fails or refuses to comply with a direction under subsection (2) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding fifty currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or both.

5. Corporate powers outside Uganda

- (1) A financial institution shall not open or set up a subsidiary, branch or representative office or transact financial institution business outside Uganda or acquire an interest in any undertaking conducting business outside Uganda, except with the consent of the Bank of Uganda.
- (2) Before granting any approval under this section, the Bank of Uganda may require to be satisfied as to the financial institution's capital adequacy and proposed business plans and may require such additional information as shall be specified by the Bank of Uganda in regulations made under this Act.
- (3) In the case of an acquisition referred to in subsection (1), the Bank of Uganda shall, in accordance with regulations made under this Act, appoint a firm of accountants to examine and report on the financial position of the undertaking to be acquired, to ensure that the acquisition is not detrimental to the interests of the depositors of the acquiring financial institution.
- (4) After establishing the subsidiary, branch or representative office outside Uganda, the financial institution concerned shall, in writing, notify the Bank of Uganda of—
 - (a) any change of address of the subsidiary, branch or representative office in question; or
 - (b) the closing of the subsidiary, branch or representative office, as soon as it occurs.
- (5) The provisions of subsections (1), (2) and (4) insofar as they are relevant, shall, with the necessary modifications, apply in respect of any controlling company.

6. Prohibitions against use of word “bank” or its derivatives

- (1) A person other than a person licensed as a commercial bank, merchant bank, mortgage bank, or post office savings bank under this Act, shall not, except with the consent of the Bank of Uganda—
 - (a) use the word “bank” or any other expression, name, title or symbol indicating or likely to create the impression that the person is conducting or is authorised to conduct business as a commercial bank, merchant bank, mortgage bank or post office savings bank under this Act; or
 - (b) make or continue to make any representation indicating the transaction of the business specified in paragraph (a) in any bill head, letter-paper, notice, advertising or in any other manner.
- (2) A financial institution may not be licensed under this Act with a name—
 - (a) that is prohibited by an Act of Parliament;
 - (b) that is in the opinion of the Bank of Uganda, deceptively misdescriptive;
 - (c) that is the same as or, in the opinion of the Bank of Uganda, similar to, any existing trademark or trade name, or corporate name of a body corporate, except where the trade name or trademark is being changed or the body corporate is being dissolved or is changing its corporate name and the consent to the use of the trademark or trade name, or corporate name is signified to the Bank of Uganda in such manner as the Bank of Uganda may require; or
 - (d) that is the same as, or in the opinion of the Bank of Uganda, substantially the same as or confusingly similar to, the known name under or by which any entity carries on business or is identified.
- (3) No company shall carry on business as a commercial bank, merchant bank, mortgage bank or post office savings bank unless it uses as part of its name the word “bank” or one of its derivatives.
- (4) A financial institution that is entitled under this Act to call itself a bank may describe its Islamic financing business as “Islamic banking business” and, if it is an Islamic financial institution, may describe itself as an “Islamic bank”.
- (5) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) or (3), commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding five currency points for every day during which the offence continues.

7. Search and seizure

- (1) The Bank of Uganda may, at any time and without prior notice, if it has reason to believe that a person is transacting or carrying on business as a financial institution or taking deposits in contravention of section 3, in writing, authorise an officer of the Bank of Uganda to—
 - (a) enter any premises which the Bank of Uganda has reason to believe are occupied or used by any person for the purpose of or in connection with the contravention of section 3;
 - (b) search any book, record, statement, document or other item used, or which is believed to be used, in connection with the contravention of section 3;
 - (c) seize or make a copy of any book, record, statement, documents or other item referred to in paragraph (b) or seize any money found on the premises;
 - (d) question any person who is present on the premises referred to in paragraph (a), or the auditors, directors, members or partners of any person conducting business on the premises, in connection with the conducting of the business on the premises;

- (e) direct that the premises referred to in paragraph (a) or any part of it or anything on the premises, should be left undisturbed for as long as it is necessary to search the premises for any book, record statement, document or item under paragraph (b);
 - (f) by notice in writing addressed and delivered to any person who has control over or custody of any book, record, statement, document or other item referred to in paragraph (b), require the person to produce the book, record, statement, document or other item to the officer of the Bank of Uganda issuing the notice, at the place, on the date and at the time specified in the notice;
 - (g) examine any book, record, statement, document or other item referred to in paragraph (b) and may require from any person referred to in paragraph (d) an explanation regarding any entry in the book, record, statement, document or other item;
 - (h) by notice in writing delivered to a financial institution, instruct the financial institution to freeze summarily any bank account or accounts of any person referred to in this subsection with the financial institution and to retain all money in that bank account or those accounts, pending the further instructions of the Bank of Uganda;
 - (i) by notice in writing delivered to any person referred to in this section, direct that the business of that person be summarily suspended, pending the investigation by the Bank of Uganda under this section; or
 - (j) if any person has been convicted of an offence under section 3(13), close down the business of that person.
- (2) If the officer of the Bank of Uganda referred to in subsection (1) performs a function under this section in the presence of any person affected by the performance of the function, the officer shall, at the request of the person affected, exhibit to the person the written authorisation referred to in that subsection.
- (3) No person shall—
- (a) hinder or obstruct an officer of the Bank of Uganda authorised under subsection (1) in the performance of the functions of officer;
 - (b) refuse or fail to comply with any request made by an officer under subsection (1) in the performance of the officer's functions;
 - (c) refuse or fail to answer any question which an officer under subsection (1) lawfully directs at that person in the performance of that officer's functions;
 - (d) wilfully furnish false or misleading information to an officer under subsection (1); or
 - (e) falsely give himself or herself out as an officer under subsection (1).
- (4) For the purposes of this section, "premises" includes any building or structure, or part of a building or structure, whether above or below the surface of the land or water, or any vehicle, vessel or aircraft.
- (5) Any person who contravenes any of the provisions of subsection (3), commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or both.

8. Repayment of money by unauthorised persons

- (1) If the Bank of Uganda is satisfied that a person has obtained any money in contravention of section 3, the Bank of Uganda shall, in writing, direct the person to repay all the money obtained by the person and all profits accruing to that person as a result of the illegally obtained money or deposits, including any interest or other amounts which may be owing by that person in respect of the money

- (a) to the respective persons from whom the money was obtained;
 - (b) in the manner and in accordance with the direction of the Bank of Uganda; and
 - (c) within the period of time imposed by the Bank of Uganda and specified in the direction.
- (2) A person referred to in subsection (1) who refuses or fails to comply with a direction under that subsection, shall, for the purposes of section 2 of the Insolvency Act, be deemed unable to pay the debts, or for the purposes of the Insolvency Act, be deemed to have committed an act of bankruptcy, as the case may be, and the Bank of Uganda may apply to the High Court for the winding up, or for the sequestration of the estate of that person, as the case may be.
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) shall be in addition to, and not derogate from, any criminal liability under this Act or any other law, of a person referred to in those subsections.

9. Application for licence

- (1) A company proposing to transact or carry on business as a financial institution shall apply, in writing, to the Bank of Uganda for a licence under this Act.
- (2) An application for a licence under this section shall contain the following information—
- (a) the name and address of—
 - (i) the proposed financial institution;

 - (c) a sworn declaration for all individuals proposing to become directors, shareholders, controllers or managers, issued in a form specified by the Bank of Uganda in regulations made under this Act;
 - (d) in the case of an applicant proposing to be an Islamic financial institution, a declaration signed by all the directors and persons proposing to become directors, in a form specified by the Bank of Uganda in regulations made under this Act, to the effect that the entire business operations of the applicant will be conducted in accordance with the Shari'ah.
- (7) Where an application under subsection (1) does not provide all the relevant information or if clarification is necessary, the applicant may be called upon to provide that information or clarification to complete the application.
- (8) A person who, in relation to an application for a licence under this Act, knowingly or recklessly provides the Bank of Uganda or any other person with information which is false or misleading in a material particular, shall for purposes of this Act, cease to be a fit and proper person, without prejudice to that person being prosecuted under this Act.

10. Factors to be considered in making decision to grant licence

The Bank of Uganda shall, in considering an application for a licence under section 9, require to be satisfied as to—

- (a) the financial condition and history of the applicant;
- (b) the nature of the business of the applicant including the range of services and products proposed;
- (c) the competence and integrity of the proposed management;
- (d) the adequacy of the applicant's capital structure, earning prospects, business plans and financial plans;
- (e) the convenience and needs of the community to be served;
- (f) the geographical locations and branch distribution network of the proposed business;
- (g) whether the directors and officers of the applicant are fit and proper persons for the purpose of transacting business as a financial institution, according to the criteria set out in Schedule 3 to this Act and such other criteria as the Bank of Uganda may determine;
- (h) the structure and shareholding of the group of companies of which the applicant forms a part or intends to form a part;
- (i) whether the applicant is or will be able to apply or maintain adequate, effective and proper internal control systems when conducting financial institution business under the licence;
- (j) whether public or economic interest will be served by the granting of the licence;
- (k) whether the promoters, controllers, and substantial shareholders are fit and proper persons;
- (l) whether the institution's business is or is required to be directed by at least two individuals;
- (m) the existence of a moratorium in force against the licensing of new financial institutions; or
- (n) any other matter which the Bank of Uganda may regard as relevant to the application or to the applicant.

11. Processing, granting and refusal of licence

- (1) The Bank of Uganda shall, within six months after receipt of an application, or of the additional information or clarification referred to in section 9(7), investigate and prepare a detailed report in respect of each application.
- (2) The Bank of Uganda shall within fourteen days after the period referred to in subsection (1), consider the application and the report, and shall—
 - (a) grant the licence if it is satisfied that the application is in accordance with this Act;
 - (b) grant the applicant a conditional licence with such conditions as it may deem necessary;
 - (c) grant the applicant a limited licence covering only the part of financial institution business for which it is satisfied that the applicant meets the requirements of this Act; or
 - (d) refuse to grant the licence for reasons that shall be stated in the letter of refusal.
- (3) The Bank of Uganda shall, within seven days after its decision under subsection (2), inform the applicant of its decision in writing.
- (4) A licence granted under this Act shall clearly indicate—
 - (a) the name and address of the financial institution;
 - (b) the nature or classification of the financial institution;

- (c) the type of financial institution business and financial services it is licensed to conduct; and
 - (d) the place or places at which the licensee is authorised to conduct the business and in the case of a financial institution permitted to conduct agent banking, the licence shall indicate the word “Agents”.
- (5) A financial institution shall not engage in any business other than the business specified in its licence.
- (6) A financial institution which contravenes subsection (5) shall pay to the Bank of Uganda a fine of three hundred currency points per day on which the violation continues.
- (7) A person aggrieved by a decision of the Bank of Uganda under this section may appeal to the High Court against the decision of the Bank of Uganda within thirty days after being notified of the decision and the High Court may confirm or set aside the decision.
- (8) Where the High Court sets aside a decision of the Bank of Uganda under subsection (7), the High Court shall direct the Bank of Uganda to reconsider its decision and refund the financial institution the money paid as fines.
- (9) On an appeal under subsection (7), the question for determination by the High Court shall be whether, for the reasons stated by the appellant, the decision appealed against was unlawful or not justified by the evidence on which it was based.

12. Licence fee

- (1) The applicant shall, upon being granted a licence under this Act, pay a fee prescribed by the Bank of Uganda by notice and the holder of the licence shall after that pay an annual fee prescribed by the Bank of Uganda on or before the 31st day of January of each year.
- (2) If a financial institution fails to pay the prescribed annual licence fees before or on the date specified in subsection (1), the financial institution shall pay to the Bank of Uganda a late payment civil penalty at a rate of fifty percent of the licence fee.
- (3) The unpaid annual licence fee and any civil penalty payable under subsection (2) shall be a debt due to the Bank of Uganda by the financial institution.

13. Duration and display of licence

- (1) A licence granted under section 11 shall remain in force until revoked.
- (2) A licence granted under section 11 shall be kept displayed in its original form in a conspicuous place in the premises in which the financial institution carries on its lawful business, and copies of it shall be similarly displayed in each of its branch offices.

14. Amendment and restriction of licence

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, the Bank of Uganda may at any time amend or restrict a financial institution’s licence or any term or condition of its licence—
- (a) to correct any error;
 - (b) if the institution requests the amendment;
 - (c) if the Bank of Uganda considers the amendment necessary to reflect the true nature of the business which the institution is conducting;
 - (d) if it is desirable for the protection of that institution’s depositors or potential depositors; or
 - (e) if for any other reason the Bank of Uganda considers the amendment necessary or desirable in the public interest.

- (2) Before amending a financial institution's licence in accordance with subsection (1), other than at the institution's request, the Bank of Uganda shall notify the institution, in writing, of the nature of the amendment it proposes to make and its reasons for making the amendment and shall give the institution an opportunity to make representations in that matter.
- (3) If the Bank of Uganda refuses to make an amendment in accordance with subsection (1)(b), it shall, within a reasonable time after reaching its decision notify the institution, in writing, of its decision and the reasons for it.

15. Failure to commence operations

The licence of a financial institution which fails to commence operations within twelve months from the date of issue of the licence shall be revoked.

16. Revocation of licence

The Bank of Uganda may revoke a licence of a financial institution if it is satisfied that the financial institution at any time—

- (a) has ceased to carry on business;
- (b) is significantly under-capitalised as defined in section 87(4) or is unable to pay its liabilities as they mature;
- (c) has gone into liquidation;
- (d) has been wound up;
- (e) has been dissolved;
- (f) is, in the opinion of the Bank of Uganda, conducting business in a manner detrimental to the interests of depositors;
- (g) has, in the view of the Bank of Uganda, contravened this Act or any other financial law in a manner which is serious or persistent;
- (h) has engaged in serious deception of the Bank of Uganda or the general public in respect of its financial condition, ownership, management, operations or other facts material to its business;
- (i) has, without the consent of the Bank of Uganda, amalgamated with another financial institution or sold or otherwise transferred its assets and liabilities to another financial institution;
- (j) has failed to comply with any condition stipulated by the Bank of Uganda under section 11(2);
- (k) has failed to comply with any instruction or direction given by the Bank of Uganda under Part IX of this Act to remedy managerial or financial deficiencies; or
- (l) does not or may not fulfil or has not or may not have fulfilled any of the licensing conditions specified in section 10.

Part III – Shareholding in financial institutions

17. Prohibitions on shareholding in financial institutions

- (1) Unless this Act expressly provides otherwise—
 - (a) a person;
 - (b) a body corporate controlled by one person;
 - (c) a group of related persons; or

- (d) a body corporate owned or controlled directly or indirectly by a group of related persons, shall not own or acquire more than forty-nine percent of the shares of a financial institution.
- (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of the Companies Act, no financial institution shall, except with the permission of the Bank of Uganda, allot or issue, or register the transfer of five percent or more of any of its shares to one person or group of related persons.
- (3) Permission under subsection (2) may be obtained from the Bank of Uganda on application in writing.
- (4) Permission under subsection (2) for the acquisition of shares in a financial institution shall not be granted unless the Bank of Uganda is satisfied that the proposed acquisition of shares—
- (a) will not be contrary to the public interest;
 - (b) will not be contrary to the interests of the financial institution concerned or its depositors; and
 - (c) will not be detrimental to the financial services industry in general.
- (5) If, through on-site inspection, the Bank of Uganda discovers that the retention of a certain amount of shareholding in a financial institution by a person will be to the detriment of the financial institution or the depositors concerned, the Bank of Uganda may—
- (a) order that person to reduce, within a period not exceeding three years, that person's shareholding in the financial institution to such percentage of the total nominal value of all the issued shares of that financial institution as the Bank of Uganda shall determine as sufficient to achieve the objective in this subsection; and the person so ordered shall within ninety days after the order is given, present to the Bank of Uganda the plan of action regarding the reduction of their shareholding;
 - (b) consider the plan of action submitted under paragraph (a) and make further orders on the plan of action;
 - (c) limit, with immediate effect, the voting rights that may be exercised by that shareholder by virtue of that person's shareholding to such percentage of the voting rights attached to all the issued shares of the financial institution as the Bank of Uganda may by notice determine.
- (6) Where any plan is rejected, the person concerned shall within thirty days of notification submit another plan.
- (7) Where the Bank of Uganda has not received a plan or is not satisfied with the plan of action submitted to it, and the person has failed, refused or neglected to provide an acceptable plan which satisfies the requirements of the Bank of Uganda, then the Bank of Uganda shall draw up a plan of action which shall be followed by that person.
- (8) A person who fails to comply with a plan of action instituted by the Bank of Uganda under subsection (7) shall cease to be a fit and proper person for the purposes of this Act and shall not remain a substantial shareholder in a financial institution.
- (9) Subject to the approval of the Bank of Uganda, subsections (1) and (2) shall not apply to the holding or acquisition of shares in a financial institution by a reputable financial institution or in exceptional cases, a reputable public company.

18. Persons who are not fit and proper not to become substantial shareholders

- (1) A person or group of related persons who do not satisfy the criteria for the fit and proper test relating to substantial shareholders as determined by the Bank of Uganda in accordance with Schedule 3 to this Act shall not acquire more than five percent of the shares of a financial institution.

- (2) No person or group of related persons shall acquire more than five percent of the shares of a financial institution unless the Bank of Uganda has—
 - (a) received from them a written notice of their intention to become substantial shareholders; and
 - (b) given them a written notice of no objection.
- (3) The Bank of Uganda shall not issue a notice of no objection unless it is satisfied that—
 - (a) the person or the whole group of related persons are fit and proper persons to become substantial shareholders of a financial institution; and
 - (b) the interests of depositors would not be in any manner threatened by that person or group of related persons becoming substantial shareholders.
- (4) Where the Bank of Uganda receives a notice under subsection (2)(a), it may seek such further information and documents from any person including the applicants.

19. Registrar not to register transfer of shares without permission of Bank of Uganda

The Registrar of Companies shall not register any transfer or allotment of shares of a financial institution referred to in section 17(2) without the written consent of the Bank of Uganda.

20. Registration of shares in names of nominees

- (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of the Companies Act, no financial institution or controlling company shall, without the written approval of the Bank of Uganda—
 - (a) allot or issue any of its shares to, or register any of its shares in the name of any person other than the intended beneficial shareholder;
 - (b) transfer any of its shares in the name of a person other than the beneficial shareholder; or
 - (c) allow any of its shares to remain registered in the name of a person other than the beneficial shareholder at any time after thirty days after the commencement of this Act.
- (2) Subsection (1) shall not affect the allotment, issue or registration of the transfer, of shares in a financial institution—
 - (a) in the name of any executor, administrator, trustee, curator, guardian or liquidator under the Companies Act; or
 - (b) for a period of not more than six months, in the name of a stockbroker or a company established by him or her for the purposes of the Capital Markets Authority Act; except that the Bank of Uganda shall require to be satisfied that the shares are allotted, issued or registered in such a manner as to facilitate delivery of the shares to the purchaser of the shares.
- (3) The financial institution shall on issue or allotment, transfer or registration of any shares under subsection (2) provide the Bank of Uganda in writing with the full particulars of the transaction relating to the allotment, issue, registration or transfer of the shares under that subsection.
- (4) The voting rights attached to the shares registered under subsection (2) shall, unless otherwise determined by the Bank of Uganda, not be more than twenty percent of the aggregate of the voting rights attached to all the issued shares of the financial institution concerned.
- (5) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine equal to twice the nominal value of the shares registered or transferred in contravention of subsection (1) for each day on which the shares remain so registered.

21. Registration of shares contrary to this Act

- (1) No person shall—
 - (a) either personally or by proxy granted to any other person, cast a vote attached to; or
 - (b) receive a dividend payable on, any share in a financial institution allotted or issued to that person or registered in the name of that person in contravention of this Act.
- (2) The validity of any resolution adopted by a financial institution shall not be affected by a vote being cast in contravention of subsection (1)(a), if that resolution was adopted by the requisite majority of votes which were validly cast.
- (3) A dividend referred to in subsection (1)(b) shall accrue to the financial institution concerned.

22. Shareholders register and disclosure of interests in shares

- (1) A financial institution shall maintain a register of the current beneficial holders of all shares in the financial institution in such form and manner as the Bank of Uganda may approve.
- (2) A financial institution shall every six months provide the Bank of Uganda with the most up-to-date returns of the register referred to in subsection (1).
- (3) No transfer of shares of a financial institution shall be valid unless the transfer is recorded in the register.
- (4) A person or group of related persons who acquire a substantial interest in shares comprised in the financial institution's share capital or ceases to be interested in shares so comprised, whether or not retaining an interest in other shares so comprised, shall within twenty-one days after the acquisition or ceasing to hold that interest, notify the financial institution of the interest so acquired or ceasing to be held.

23. Restriction of right to control financial institutions

- (1) No person other than a reputable financial institution or in exceptional cases a reputable public company, may exercise control over a financial institution.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, a person shall be deemed to exercise control over a financial institution if, where that person is a company, the financial institution is a subsidiary of that company or whether or not that person is a company, if that person by himself or herself or together with his or her associates, related persons or group of related persons—
 - (a) is entitled or has the power to determine the appointment of the majority of the directors of that financial institution, including—
 - (i) the power to appoint or remove, without the concurrence of any other person, all or the majority of such directors; or
 - (ii) the power to prevent any person from being appointed a director without his or her consent, and if a person's appointment as a director of the financial institution follows necessarily from his or her appointment as a director of the person first-mentioned in this subsection, the first-mentioned appointment shall for the purposes of this subsection be deemed to be an appointment by virtue of a power of a person first-mentioned;
 - (b) exercises directly or indirectly a controlling influence over the financial institution, its major policies or strategies singly or in concert with a related person or group of related persons.

24. Penalties for violating provisions on shareholding

- (1) The Bank of Uganda may, in writing, if it is satisfied that a financial institution or any other person has contravened any of the provisions of section 17, 18, 19,22 or 23, as the case maybe, make a preliminary order imposing one or more of the restrictions specified in subsection \(2\) on the person or on the financial institution, as the case may be, as the Bank of Uganda may consider appropriate.
- (2) A preliminary order by the Bank of Uganda under subsection \(1\) may, in respect of any of the shares forming the subject of, or related to, the contravention referred to in that subsection, prohibit—
 - (a) the transfer of, or the due performance in terms of any agreement to transfer the shares;
 - (b) in the case of unissued shares, the transfer of, or the right to be issued with, the unissued shares;
 - (c) the exercise of any voting rights in respect of the shares;
 - (d) the issue of any further shares in accordance with any offer made to the holder of the shares; or
 - (e) except in the case of liquidation, the payment of any amount due by the financial institution in respect of the shares.
- (3) A preliminary order made by the Bank of Uganda under subsection \(1\) shall—
 - (a) be in the prescribed form and shall be signed by a person appointed by the Bank of Uganda;
 - (b) be addressed to the financial institution or the person concerned;
 - (c) specify and contain full particulars of the order made by the Bank of Uganda; and
 - (d) during normal hours of business, be delivered by a person appointed in writing by the Bank of Uganda for the purpose, upon the principal officer of the financial institution or upon the other person referred to in subsection \(1\), as the case may be, to whom the preliminary order is directed or, in the case of a financial institution, if the principal officer is not available, upon any person above the age of eighteen years employed by the financial institution.
- (4) The person to whom the preliminary order is delivered under subsection \(3\)\(d\), shall—
 - (a) in writing, acknowledge receipt of the order, specifying—
 - (i) the full name and designation of the person who received the order; and
 - (ii) the date and time of the receipt; and
 - (b) sign the acknowledgement of receipt referred to in paragraph \(a\).
- (5) The Bank of Uganda may, at its discretion and in addition to the delivery of the preliminary order under subsection \(3\)\(d\) to the financial institution or upon the other person concerned, publish the preliminary order in one or more of the newspapers in the manner and form as the Bank of Uganda may specify.
- (6) A preliminary order delivered upon a financial institution or other person referred to under subsection \(3\)\(d\) shall, from the date of the delivery, be binding upon the financial institution or the other person, as the case may be, to whom the order is directed and to whom it is delivered under that subsection.
- (7) A person holding shares in a financial institution and to whom a preliminary order has been delivered under subsection \(3\)\(d\) shall, within seven days after the date of service, or within such longer period as the Bank of Uganda may allow, surrender the share certificate concerned to the Bank of Uganda, together with such other documents relating to the shares as the Bank of Uganda may specify in the order.

- (8) A person to whom a preliminary order has been delivered under subsection (3)(d) or any other person prejudiced by the order, may within fourteen days after the date of service of the order or after the date upon which he or she became aware of the order, as the case may be, make written representations to the Bank of Uganda applying for—
- (a) the cancellation of the order on the grounds that the person had not contravened any provision of this Act as specified in the order; or
 - (b) an amendment of the order on the grounds specified in the application.
- (9) The Bank of Uganda may, after consideration of the representations made to it under subsection (8)—
- (a) confirm the preliminary order;
 - (b) cancel the preliminary order; or
 - (c) confirm the preliminary order subject to such amendments as the Bank of Uganda may consider appropriate.
- (10) If the Bank of Uganda confirms a preliminary order under subsection (9), it may dispose of the shares surrendered to it under subsection (7), at a fair valuation determined by the Bank of Uganda in such manner as it may consider appropriate to a person qualified to hold such shares under this Act.
- (11) The proceeds of a sale of shares under subsection (10) shall, subject to subsection (12), be paid by the Bank of Uganda to the person entitled to the proceeds.
- (12) If the Bank of Uganda—
- (a) in writing for any reason declines to pay the proceeds referred to in subsection (11) to any person claiming to be entitled to it; or
 - (b) does not receive a claim under subsection (11) within a period of two years after the date of sale of the shares referred to in subsection (11),
- then the proceeds shall be kept in an account with the Bank of Uganda and the Bank of Uganda may apply to the High Court for directions as to the disposal of the proceeds.
- (13) The Bank of Uganda may, in writing, give such instructions or directions to the directors or officers of a financial institution referred to in subsection (1) as the Bank of Uganda may consider necessary to give effect to an order made by the Bank of Uganda under this section.
- (14) Any transaction, including any agreement or arrangement, in relation to any shares or security or to any interest in any shares or security, which contravenes—
- (a) any order made under this section; or
 - (b) any instruction or direction given under subsection (13), by the Bank of Uganda, shall be null and void.
- (15) The Bank of Uganda may, irrespective of whether a person referred to in subsection (1) has been prosecuted in respect of the contravention of a provision of this Act referred to in that subsection, make a preliminary order or take such other steps as the Bank of Uganda may consider appropriate.
- (16) Any person who contravenes subsection (4) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or both.

Part IV – Capital requirements

25. Minimum capital requirements for financial institutions

- (1) A person proposing to transact financial institution business in the capacity of a bank in Uganda shall have a minimum paid-up cash capital of not less than two hundred thousand currency points invested initially in such liquid assets in Uganda as the Bank of Uganda may approve.
- (2) The minimum capital funds unimpaired by losses of a bank shall at any time not be less than two hundred thousand currency points.
- (3) A person proposing to transact business as a non-bank financial institution shall have a minimum paid-up cash capital of not less than fifty thousand currency points invested in such liquid assets in Uganda as the Bank of Uganda may approve.
- (4) The minimum capital funds unimpaired by losses of a non-bank financial institution shall at any time not be less than fifty thousand currency points.
- (5) The Minister, on the advice of the Bank of Uganda, may revise the minimum capital requirements of financial institutions by a statutory instrument, which shall immediately be laid before Parliament.

26. Minimum ongoing capital requirements

- (1) A financial institution shall at all times maintain—
 - (a) a core capital of not less than eight percent of total risk adjusted assets plus risk adjusted off balance sheet items as may be determined by the Bank of Uganda by statutory instrument; and
 - (b) a total capital of not less than twelve percent of its total risk adjusted assets plus risk adjusted off balance sheet items as may be determined by the Bank of Uganda by statutory instrument.
- (2) The Bank of Uganda may prescribe higher ongoing capital requirements for a specific financial institution if the supervisory review process reveals existing risks in the financial institution warranting the increase.
- (3) The Bank of Uganda may, by statutory instrument, in consultation with the Minister, revise the minimum ongoing capital requirements of a financial institution.
- (4) The Bank of Uganda may, in addition to the minimum ongoing capital requirements specified in subsection (1), by statutory instrument, in consultation with the Minister, require financial institutions to maintain capital buffers.

27. Minimum holding and computation of liquid assets

- (1) A financial institution shall maintain a minimum holding of liquid assets, as determined by the Bank of Uganda in accordance with subsection (2).
- (2) Subject to section 25(1) and (2), the minimum holding of liquid assets under this section shall be expressed as a proportion of the demand and time liabilities of a financial institution and shall not exceed thirty percent of such demand and time liabilities, except that—
 - (a) different proportions may be determined for demand and time liabilities and for different types of financial institutions; and
 - (b) demand or time liabilities due by a financial institution to its head office or to any bank situated outside Uganda may, at the discretion of the Bank of Uganda, be included wholly or in part.

- (3) The Bank of Uganda shall prescribe the minimum amount of liquid assets to be held by a financial institution, including the off setting of general or specified liquid assets against demand and time liabilities; except that in so doing the Bank of Uganda may distinguish between requirements for deposit liabilities denominated in foreign currency and those denominated in Uganda shillings.
- (4) In computing the minimum amount of liquid assets to be held by a financial institution operating in Uganda and elsewhere, all offices or branches of that financial institution in Uganda shall be deemed to constitute one institution.
- (5) A financial institution which contravenes this section is liable to pay to the Bank of Uganda a civil penalty of one-tenth of one percent of the amount of the deficiency for every day on which the deficiency continues.
- (6) For the purposes of this section, “liquid assets” means all or any of the following—
 - (a) notes and coins which are legal tender in Uganda and any other currency prescribed by the Bank of Uganda;
 - (b) balances held at the Bank of Uganda as may be approved by the Bank of Uganda;
 - (c) money at call and balances at banks in Uganda other than the Bank of Uganda after deducting balances owed to those banks;
 - (d) Uganda treasury bills maturing within a period not exceeding ninety-one days;
 - (e) marketable government securities that are held by financial institutions for trading purposes;
 - (f) uncommitted balances at banks outside Uganda withdrawable on demand and money at call outside Uganda after deducting therefrom balances owed to banks outside Uganda, if the balances and money at call are in currencies which are freely negotiable and transferable in international exchange markets consistent with the articles of agreement of the International Monetary Fund;
 - (g) commercial bills and promissory notes which are eligible for discount by commercial banks or by the Bank of Uganda under the Bank of Uganda Act; or
 - (h) any other asset that the Bank of Uganda may by statutory instrument approve.
- (7) The Bank of Uganda shall allow reasonable time after a minimum holding is prescribed or increased under subsection (1) to enable the financial institution to comply with the requirement.

Part V – Prohibitions and restrictions

28. Bar on lending where liquid assets are insufficient

Where a financial institution fails to maintain the minimum amount of liquid assets, it shall not grant any new or additional loan or credit accommodation to any person without the prior written approval of the Bank of Uganda.

29. Restrictions on lending against own shares and debt instruments

A financial institution shall not grant any advance or credit facility or accommodation against—

- (a) security of its own shares or those of a company affiliated to it; or
- (b) any instruments which may qualify as capital of the financial institution.

30. Restrictions on credit concentration

- (1) A financial institution shall not grant or promise to grant to a single person or to a group of related persons any advance or credit accommodation which is more than twenty-five percent of its total capital.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a financial institution may grant an advance or credit facility in excess of twenty-five percent but not more than fifty percent of its total capital if the facility is self-liquidating and its maturity or expiry does not exceed three years and is adequately secured by—
 - (a) Uganda Government securities to be pledged to the financial institution;
 - (b) fixed deposits held by the financial institution and secured by a lien; or
 - (c) other qualifying securities as the Bank of Uganda may by statutory instrument prescribe.
- (3) The Bank of Uganda shall aggregate as a single advance or credit facility all loans and credit accommodations made by a financial institution to one or more persons with a common interest.
- (4) A common interest shall be deemed to exist between persons for the purposes of this section if—
 - (a) the exposure to those persons constitutes a single exposure because of the fact that one of them directly or indirectly exercises control over others;
 - (b) although the persons to whom the financial institution is exposed are different entities, they are so interconnected that if one of them experiences financial difficulties, another one or all of them are likely to experience lack of liquidity;
 - (c) those persons are affiliates within the meaning of this Act;
 - (d) those persons are related persons within the meaning of this Act;
 - (e) those persons have common control; or
 - (f) those persons are associates within the meaning of this Act.
- (5) In addition to but without derogation from subsections (1), (2) and (3), a financial institution shall not have large exposures which in the aggregate exceed eight hundred percent of its total capital.
- (6) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2), a financial institution may grant to another financial institution an advance or credit facility which is more than twenty-five percent of its total capital except that the advance or credit facility—
 - (a) shall not exceed fifty percent of its total capital;
 - (b) shall not have a maturity exceeding one year; and
 - (c) shall immediately be reported to the Bank of Uganda.
- (7) Where the advance or credit facility by a financial institution to another financial institution exceeds one year, it shall be secured in accordance with subsection (2).

31. Restrictions relating to reduction of capital

- (1) A financial institution shall not at any time—
 - (a) pay or declare any dividend;
 - (b) make any transfer from profits or capital; or
 - (c) make any other distributions, other than to a reserve account, if the dividend, payment, or distribution is likely to result in the financial institution not meeting its capital requirements.

- (2) Subsection (1) shall apply with the necessary modifications to any financial institution that does not meet the capital requirements prior to the payment or distribution.
- (3) The Bank of Uganda shall direct any institution which contravenes subsections (1) and (2) to—
 - (a) recall all the dividends, payments or distributions made or make good their full value; and
 - (b) pay a civil penalty equivalent to twice the value of dividends, distributions or payments made.

32. Restrictions on inter institutional placements and loans

- (1) A financial institution whose core capital is less than forty percent of the core capital prescribed in this Act shall not take any placement or receive any loan or credit accommodation from any financial institution in Uganda.
- (2) Placements between affiliated financial institutions shall be considered as insider transactions and shall be subject to all the provisions of section 33.
- (3) Where the Bank of Uganda finds that any person has contravened any of the provisions of this section it shall—
 - (a) where the person is a financial institution—
 - (i) order the immediate repayment by the taking financial institution of the excess by which the placement exceeded the limits prescribed in this section and impose a civil penalty on the offending financial institution of two hundred fifty currency points for each day on which the contravention continues; or
 - (ii) impose one or more of the foregoing penalties as the Bank of Uganda, in its own discretion, deems fit; and
 - (b) where the person is an individual, impose a civil penalty of fifty currency points per day on which the contravention continues, which fine shall be paid personally by every officer or director who authorised the contravention.
- (4) A civil penalty imposed under subsection (3) shall be a debt due from that person to the Bank of Uganda and shall—
 - (a) in case of officers and directors, if not paid within sixty days after demand of the civil penalty, be recoverable by personal action against them; or
 - (b) in case of the financial institution be recoverable by debit to its account with the Bank of Uganda.

33. Prohibitions on insider transactions

- (1) A financial institution shall not grant or permit to be outstanding a loan or credit accommodation to any of its affiliates and associates, directors, persons with executive authority, substantial shareholders or to any of their related persons or their related interests except on terms which are non-preferential in all respects including creditworthiness, term, interest rate and the value of the collateral.
- (2) For the purpose of subsection (1), “non-preferential” means upon terms no more favourable than those which would be offered under prevailing conditions to persons other than those referred to under subsection (1).
- (3) A financial institution shall not grant or permit to be outstanding loans or credit accommodations to its affiliates and associates, directors, persons with executive authority, substantial shareholders or to any of their related persons or group of related persons or their related interests which, in the aggregate, exceed twenty percent of its core capital.

- (4) Every loan or credit accommodation by a financial institution to any of its affiliates and associates, directors, persons with executive authority, substantial shareholders or to any of their related persons or group of related persons or their related interests shall be secured at all times by collateral having a market value of at least one hundred twenty percent of the outstanding amount of the loan throughout its term.
- (5) Any collateral required by subsection (4) shall be assigned to the financial institution and shall at all times be an enforceable or realisable security.
- (6) A financial institution shall not grant or permit to be outstanding aggregate loans and credit accommodations to any one of its employees, including executive directors, in excess of two years' salary of the officer or executive director.
- (7) Subsection (6) shall not apply to any residential mortgage loan which is governed by subsection (9).
- (8) A financial institution shall not grant or permit to be outstanding loans or credit accommodations to any one of its non-executive directors and his or her related interests, in excess of 2.5 percent of core capital of the financial institution.
- (9) Notwithstanding subsection (6), a financial institution may grant to an employee a secured loan or credit accommodation which aggregates up to three times one year's salary of the employee for the purpose of purchasing or constructing a primary residence for the employee.
- (10) A loan or credit accommodation shall not be granted to any officer including an executive director under subsection (6) or (9) while any other loan to that person is non-performing.
- (11) "Non-performing" has the meaning assigned to it in section 34(2).
- (12) A director of a financial institution who contravenes this section, shall immediately cease to be a "fit and proper person" for the purposes of this Act and shall cease to be a member of the board of directors of the financial institution and in addition, shall not be permitted to be re-appointed to the board of directors of that financial institution or appointed to any board of directors of a financial institution in Uganda without the prior written permission of the Bank of Uganda.
- (13) Any person who grants or receives a loan or credit accommodation which contravenes any of the provisions of this section commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine of fifty percent of the amount in excess of the limit or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or both.
- (14) Notwithstanding subsection (13), the Bank of Uganda may order for—
 - (a) repayment by the offending officer and director of any amount which exceeds the legal lending limits prescribed in this section;
 - (b) the execution of proper security documentation where applicable;
 - (c) delivery of adequate collateral;
 - (d) regularisation of any preferential terms or conditions of a loan as the case may be;
 - (e) dismissal from the financial institution of the offending officer; or (f) barring the offending officer from any future employment at any financial institution for a specified or indefinite period.
- (15) Where a financial institution enters into a transaction that it is prohibited from entering into by this section, the institution shall deduct the outstanding amount of the loan or sum granted or extended to the insider when computing the ongoing capital requirements of the institution.

34. Restriction on purchase of certain loans

- (1) A financial institution shall not purchase a non-performing or low quality asset from any of its affiliates and associates, directors, persons with executive authority, substantial shareholders or from any of their related persons or group of related persons or their related interests.

- (2) For the purposes of this section, a “non-performing asset” means a loan, credit accommodation or asset in respect of which the principal, interest, rent or other payment has been due and unpaid for ninety days or more, or where its principal or interest payments, overdue by ninety days or more, have been capitalised, restructured or renewed.

35. Restriction on externalisation of assets

- (1) A financial institution shall not transfer any part of its assets out of Uganda where the aggregate of assets to be transferred exceeds twenty-five percent of its total capital, without the prior notice to the Bank of Uganda unless the transfer is done in the normal course of business of the institution.
- (2) A financial institution which contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred currency points per day on which the contravention continues.

36. Engaging in trade, commerce, industry

Subject to this Act, a financial institution shall not—

- (a) engage directly or indirectly for its own account, alone or with others in trade, commerce, industry or agriculture, except in the course of the satisfaction of debts due to it in which case all such activities and interests shall be disposed of at the earliest reasonable opportunity; or
- (b) acquire or hold, directly or indirectly, in the aggregate, any part of share capital of, or make any capital investment or otherwise have any interest in enterprises engaged in trade, commerce, industry or agriculture in excess of twenty-five percent of its core capital, except in the course of the satisfaction of debts due to it; but in such a case all shares and interests shall be disposed of at the earliest reasonable opportunity.

37. Investments in immovable property

- (1) A financial institution shall not purchase or acquire any immovable property or any right in it, except as may be reasonably necessary for the purpose of conducting its business or of housing or providing amenities for its staff, in which case the cost of the property, in aggregate, shall not exceed one hundred percent of the financial institution’s core capital.
- (2) A financial institution which on the date of commencement of this Act, holds directly or indirectly, in the aggregate immovable property, the cost of which exceeds one hundred percent of its core capital, shall within five years from that date—
 - (a) dispose of the property in order to comply with this Act; or
 - (b) add new capital as shall be directed by the Bank of Uganda in order to comply with this Act.
- (3) This section shall not be construed so as to prevent a financial institution from—
 - (a) securing a debt on any immovable property and in case of default of payment of the debt, from holding the immovable property for realisation at the earliest reasonable opportunity to the financial institution; or
 - (b) purchasing or acquiring movable or immovable property as part of a business involving the purchase or acquisition of such property for immediate lease or resale after obtaining consent from the Bank of Uganda or in accordance with rules specified by the Bank of Uganda by regulations.
- (4) A financial institution which contravenes subsection (1) shall pay to the Bank of Uganda a civil penalty of five currency points for each day on which the contravention continues.

38. Restrictions on engaging in securities activities

- (1) No financial institution which is licensed to accept deposits shall on its own account or at its own risk engage in—
 - (a) any underwriting of shares; or
 - (b) any securities brokerage or dealing activities.
- (2) A financial institution which contravenes this section shall pay to the Bank of Uganda a civil penalty of five currency points for each day on which the contravention continues.
- (3) For the purposes of this section—

“securities brokerage” means any activity engaged in by a person whether as principal or agent, who acts as an intermediary between a buyer and a seller of securities; and “securities dealing” means any activities engaged in by a person, whether as a principal or an agent, who buys and sells securities or otherwise deals in securities on his or her own account.

- (4) Subsection (1) does not apply to Government securities and Bank of Uganda securities.

39. Foreign exchange holdings

- (1) The Bank of Uganda may, by notice, prescribe rules applicable to financial institutions for the conduct of foreign exchange business.
- (2) The Bank of Uganda may, by notice, impose restrictions on the foreign exchange business of a financial institution.
- (3) Any person who—
 - (a) contravenes a rule prescribed under subsection (1); or
 - (b) fails to comply with a restriction imposed under subsection (2),commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred fifty currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or both.

40. Core capital requirements for conducting foreign exchange business

- (1) A financial institution shall not conduct any new foreign exchange business if it is significantly under-capitalised as defined in section 87(4).
- (2) A financial institution which contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence.
- (3) Where a financial institution commits an offence under subsection (2), the financial institution shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred fifty currency points for each day on which the offence continues.

41. Net open position in foreign currencies

- (1) The Bank of Uganda may fix or prescribe a manner of determination of—
 - (a) the net open position of the financial institution in foreign currencies generally or in any specified foreign currency; and
 - (b) the maximum limit for the net open position in foreign currencies generally or in any specified foreign currency that the financial institution may create which shall not exceed twenty-five percent of the core capital of the financial institution.
- (2) The Bank of Uganda may prescribe, by notice, the manner of correcting the net open position of a financial institution that exceeds the maximum limit.

- (3) A financial institution whose net open position in foreign currencies generally or in any specified foreign currency exceeds the limit prescribed under subsection (1)(b) shall pay to the Bank of Uganda a civil penalty of one percent of the excess net open position per day on which the contravention continues.
- (4) All financial institutions shall, in such format as shall be prescribed by the Bank of Uganda, provide to the Bank of Uganda daily or weekly or monthly returns for their net open position in foreign currencies.
- (5) A financial institution that fails to comply with subsection (4) or submits inaccurate returns shall pay to the Bank of Uganda a civil penalty of fifty currency points for each day on which the contravention continues.
- (6) A financial institution which provides false information in the returns to the Bank of Uganda under subsection (4) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred fifty currency points for each day on which the return remains uncorrected.

42. Suspension of foreign exchange business

The Bank of Uganda may suspend any financial institution from conducting foreign exchange business if the financial institution is under any criminal investigation concerning its dealings in foreign exchange.

43. Stored value cards

- (1) No person shall, in Uganda, issue any stored value card except—
 - (a) a financial institution which has obtained the approval of the Bank of Uganda;
 - (b) a person, for payment only of goods or services or both goods and services provided directly by that person; or
 - (c) a person authorised by the Bank of Uganda.
- (2) The Bank of Uganda may impose terms and conditions under which a stored value card may be issued by a financial institution.
- (3) Where a financial institution which has obtained the approval of the Bank of Uganda issues a stored value card, the proceeds arising from the issue by the financial institution of the stored value card shall be subject to such reserve and liquidity requirements as the Bank of Uganda may by notice in accordance with this section prescribe.
- (4) Any person who—
 - (a) issues a stored value card otherwise than in accordance with this section; or
 - (b) fails to comply with such requirements as the Bank of Uganda may impose under this section, commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding five hundred currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or both.

- (c) amortisation of preliminary expenses, goodwill and similar expenses.

75. Special and further investigations by external auditors

- (1) The Bank of Uganda may require an external auditor to—
 - (a) submit such additional information in relation to the audit as the Bank of Uganda shall deem necessary;
 - (b) carry out any other special investigation;
 - (c) carry out any further investigation; or
 - (d) submit a report on any of the matters referred to in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c),and the financial institution concerned shall remunerate the auditor in respect of the discharge by him or her of all or any of such additional duties.
- (2) The Bank of Uganda shall, at least once in every financial year, arrange meetings between the Bank of Uganda, a financial institution and its external auditor to discuss matters relevant to the Bank of Uganda's supervisory responsibilities which have arisen in the course of the statutory audit of that financial institution, including relevant aspects of the business of the financial institution, its accounting and internal control systems, and its annual balance sheet, profit and loss accounts, and management letter.
- (3) The Bank of Uganda may, if it considers it necessary, arrange meetings with the external auditors of the financial institution.
- (4) If an external auditor, acting in good faith and not negligently or with wrongful intent, furnishes to the Bank of Uganda any information or opinion on a matter to which this Act applies and which is relevant to the supervisory function of the Bank of Uganda, whether or not in response to a request by it, such actions by the external auditor shall not—
 - (a) constitute a breach of any duty which the external auditor may owe to any person; or
 - (b) constitute a contravention of any code of professional conduct to which the external auditor may be subject.
- (5) Subsection (4) shall apply to any matter of which the external auditor becomes aware in his or her capacity as an external auditor or in discharge of his or her duties under this Act and which relates to the business or affairs of the institution or its subsidiary or affiliate.

76. Control over management

- (1) The Bank of Uganda may, by order in writing, remove from office a chairperson, director or the chief executive of a financial institution if satisfied that in the public interest or for preventing the affairs of the financial institution being conducted in a manner detrimental to the interests of the depositors or for securing the proper management of the financial institution, it is necessary to do so.

- (2) The removal from office of a chairperson, director or the chief executive of a financial institution under subsection (1) shall take effect from such date as may be prescribed by the Bank of Uganda.
- (3) A person aggrieved by the decision of the Bank of Uganda may, within fourteen days after making the order, make representations to the Bank of Uganda and the Bank of Uganda may modify, cancel or uphold its decision to remove that person or impose any conditions on the modification or cancellation.
- (4) Where an order under subsection (1) has been made, the Bank of Uganda may appoint any suitable person in place of the chairperson, director or chief executive who has been removed from office to hold that office for such period as the letter of appointment may specify.
- (5) Notwithstanding anything in any law or in any contract, or memorandum and articles of association, a person removed by the Bank of Uganda under this Act is entitled to compensation for loss or termination of employment of not more than three months' salary.
- (6) A person who has been convicted of an offence involving financial impropriety, fraud or financial loss shall not become or continue in the management of a financial institution.

77. Credit Reference Bureau

- (1) The Bank of Uganda or its appointed agent or any other person authorised by the Bank of Uganda shall establish a Credit Reference Bureau for the purpose of disseminating credit information among financial institutions for their business.
- (2) All financial institutions shall promptly report to the Credit Reference Bureau—
 - (a) all the details of non-performing loans and other accredited credit facilities classified as doubtful or as losses in their portfolio, where the amount owed is not in dispute and the customer has not made any satisfactory proposals for repayment of the debt following formal demand, and the customer has been given at least twenty-eight days' notice of the intention to disclose that information to the Credit Reference Bureau; and
 - (b) information on customers involved in financial malpractices including bouncing of cheques due to lack of funds and fraud.
- (3) No information other than that referred to in subsection (2) shall be divulged by any financial institution to the Credit Reference Bureau without the customer's consent.
- (4) Where—
 - (a) a Credit Reference Bureau established under this Act or its officer; or
 - (b) a financial institution or its officer,discloses to a financial institution or its officer, the Credit Reference Bureau or its officer, the information referred to in subsection (2), in good faith, in the performance of their duties, no right of action shall accrue to or against that person for breach of the duty of confidentiality.
- (5) Any customer of a financial institution has a right to know what information is held on him or her by the Credit Reference Bureau.
- (6) The Bank of Uganda may, in consultation with the Minister, make regulations providing for the access and use of the Credit Reference Bureau by other credit providers or service providers.
- (7) For the purposes of subsection (6), a "credit provider" or "service provider" means an institution not licensed by the Bank of Uganda that is involved in the provision of goods and services on credit to the public.
- (8) Where the Bank of Uganda considers it necessary, and after consultation with the Minister, the Bank of Uganda may, under the provisions of subsection (1), establish more than one Credit Reference Bureau.

- (9) The Bank of Uganda may license a Biometric Identification Service Provider for purposes of the Credit Reference Bureaus established under subsection (1).
- (10) For the purposes of this section, a Biometric Identification Service Provider means a legal entity established as a limited liability company and licensed by the Bank of Uganda to collect, compile, consolidate, process and store biometric and personal identification data to identify persons, companies and enterprises for purposes of availing that data to financial institutions, microfinance deposit-taking institutions, Credit Reference Bureaus and such other credit providers that may have been permitted by the Bank of Uganda under regulations made under subsection (6).

78. Financial institution to carry out credit check on customer applying for credit

- (1) Unless the Bank of Uganda directs otherwise, every financial institution shall perform a credit check on a customer who applies for credit from the financial institution.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Bank of Uganda may, by statutory instrument, after consultation with the Minister, prescribe other circumstances requiring a financial institution to perform a credit check on a customer.

Part VIII – Supervision

79. Inspection of financial institutions

- (1) The Bank of Uganda may, periodically or at any time at its discretion, cause an inspection to be made, by an officer of the Bank of Uganda or other person appointed by the Bank of Uganda, of any financial institution and of its financial records and books of accounts on the premises of the financial institution and shall provide to that financial institution a copy of the report on inspection.
- (2) The financial institution shall furnish to the officer making an inspection under subsection (1), all such books of accounts and financial records and other documents as well as assets including cash, notes and securities held by the financial institution in its custody or power and furnish the officer with such statements or information relating to the affairs of the financial institution as the officer may require of it within such reasonable time as the officer may specify.
- (3) Any officer of a financial institution who fails to furnish any document in his or her custody or power as required under subsection (2) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding fifty currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or both.
- (4) An officer of the Bank of Uganda or any person appointed by the Bank of Uganda under subsection (1) shall after inspection prepare and submit a report which shall draw attention to any breach or contravention of this Act, regulations, notices or directions issued under this Act, any weaknesses in systems control and procedures or in the manner of conduct of the business of the financial institution inspected, any mismanagement, and such other matter relating to the business of the financial institution not consistent with sound banking practice.

80. Information to be provided by financial institution

- (1) A financial institution shall furnish to the Bank of Uganda at such times and in such form as the Bank of Uganda may prescribe, all information and data of its operations in Uganda including periodic returns called for by the Bank of Uganda and the audited balance sheet and profit and loss account and those of any company which is a subsidiary, affiliate, associate or holding company to that financial institution or any other information which the Bank of Uganda may require for the proper discharge of its functions under this Act.
- (2) A financial institution shall report to the Bank of Uganda all loans and other credit granted or extended to insiders at least once every quarter of the financial year.

- (3) A financial institution which, without reasonable cause, fails to comply with subsection (1) or (2), or submits inaccurate returns, shall pay to the Bank of Uganda a civil penalty of fifty currency points per day of default.
- (4) The Bank of Uganda may impose restrictions on the operations of a financial institution which fails to provide information required under this section or which provides false information.
- (5) The Bank of Uganda may, upon request made to it by any monetary or financial regulatory authority in the ordinary course of its business, disclose any of the information provided under this section to that monetary or financial regulatory authority within or outside Uganda; except that the Bank of Uganda shall, before disclosing any information under this section, first satisfy itself that the information is required for the proper discharge of the functions of the requesting monetary authority or financial regulatory authority.

81. Information for consolidated supervision

- (1) The Bank of Uganda shall, if it deems necessary for the safety and soundness of the financial institution, or for the safety of the depositors or to determine whether the provisions of this Act are being duly complied with, require in writing any affiliates, associates, holding or subsidiary companies or any person who controls a financial institution to provide the Bank of Uganda or its appointed agent such information or documents as may be necessary including the financial statements and other financial records of that affiliate, associate, holding or subsidiary company or controller within the period specified in the notice.
- (2) The Bank of Uganda may appoint a competent person to carry out an examination of the operations and affairs of the affiliate, associate, holding or subsidiary company of a financial institution; or of any person who exercises control over a financial institution in order to satisfy itself that the operations and affairs of the affiliate, associate or holding or subsidiary company or of the person who exercises control over a financial institution are not detrimental to the safety and soundness of the financial institution concerned.
- (3) Any person who fails, refuses, omits or neglects to provide information requested under subsection (1) or (2) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred fifty currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or both; and an additional fine not exceeding fifty currency points for each day on which the offence continues.
- (4) Any substantial shareholder or director of a financial institution who—
 - (a) being a natural person fails, refuses, omits or neglects to provide information requested for under subsection (1) or (2) or is a party to such failure, refusal, omission or neglect; or
 - (b) being a company fails, refuses, omits or neglects to provide information requested under subsections (1) or (2) or is a party to such failure, refusal, omission or neglect,shall cease to be a fit and proper person and shall not remain a substantial shareholder or director in a financial institution.

Part IX – corrective actions

82. Intervention

- (1) Where the Bank of Uganda has reason to believe or finds that the affairs of the financial institution are conducted in a manner detrimental to the interests of the depositors or prejudicial to the interests of the financial institution or in contravention of this Act, or any other written law or that the financial institution has refused to submit to inspection, or has provided false information, the Bank of Uganda may, without prejudice to any other course of action—
 - (a) order in writing that the financial institution takes remedial action to comply with this Act or regulations, notices or orders issued under this Act;

- (b) issue directions regarding measures to be taken to improve the management, financial soundness or business methods of the financial institution;
 - (c) require the directors or management of the financial institution to execute an agreement concerning their implementation of orders or directions issued under paragraphs (a) and (b); or
 - (d) perform or appoint an agent to perform a special examination of the financial institution to determine the financial condition of the institution and evaluate resolution options, at the cost of the financial institution.
- (2) Where a financial institution fails, refuses or neglects to comply with an order, direction or agreement issued or made under subsection (1), the Bank of Uganda may do any or all of the following—
- (a) initiate a legally binding cease and desist order, of either temporary or indefinite duration requiring the financial institution and its management to—
 - (i) stop the improper or unacceptable practice;
 - (ii) put a limit to lending and other credit accommodation; or
 - (iii) stop any declaration of dividends;
 - (b) remove or suspend any person from the management of the affairs of the financial institution;
 - (c) impose penalties on the offending member of the management to be met personally;
 - (d) appoint a person who, in the opinion of the Bank of Uganda, is suitably qualified and competent to advise and assist the institution generally or for the purposes of implementing the orders, directions or agreements under paragraph (a), (b) or (c) and the advice of a person so appointed shall have the same force and effect as a direction made under paragraph (a), (b), or (c) and shall be deemed to be a direction of the Bank of Uganda under this section;
 - (e) appoint a person, suitably qualified and competent in the opinion of the Bank of Uganda, to manage the affairs of the financial institution for such period as shall be necessary to rectify the problem;
 - (f) require the financial institution to reconstitute its board of directors within such period as shall be specified;
 - (g) withhold approvals on establishment of new branches;
 - (h) withdraw the foreign exchange dealers' licence;
 - (i) require the financial institution to add such capital as may be specified; or
 - (j) impose any other sanctions as the Bank of Uganda may deem appropriate in the circumstances,

83. Modification, cancellation and upholding of orders

The Bank of Uganda may, upon representation made to it or on its own motion, modify or cancel or uphold any order issued under section 82, and upon such modification or cancellation, impose such conditions as are necessary subject to which the modification or cancellation shall have effect.

84. Prompt mandatory corrective actions

The prompt, mandatory corrective actions prescribed in sections 85, 86 and 87, shall take precedence over any discretionary corrective actions available to the Bank of Uganda under this Act or any other law.

85. Adequately capitalised financial institutions suffering large losses

- (1) Where a financial institution which complies with the capital requirements prescribed in sections 25 and 26 has incurred or is likely to incur large losses within any financial year, the Bank of Uganda shall take the following actions against that financial institution—
 - (a) prohibit the financial institution from declaring and distributing any dividends which are, in the opinion of the Bank of Uganda, likely to cause the financial institution not to comply with the capital requirements prescribed in sections 25 and 26;
 - (b) undertake more frequent inspection of that financial institution; and
 - (c) prohibit the financial institution from making any other distributions, bonuses or increments in the salary, emoluments and other benefits of all directors and staff of the financial institution.
- (2) In addition to the actions prescribed in subsection (1), the Bank of Uganda may require the directors or management of the financial institution to provide a written explanation detailing the causes of those losses and the measures to be taken by the financial institution to rectify the position and avert future losses.
- (3) For the purposes of this section “large losses” means any loss that constitutes twenty-five percent of a financial institution’s core capital.

86. Under-capitalised financial institutions

- (1) An “under-capitalised financial institution” is one which does not comply fully with any or all of the capital requirements prescribed in sections 25 and 26.
- (2) Where a financial institution is under-capitalised, the Bank of Uganda shall take the following actions against that financial institution—
 - (a) all of the actions prescribed in section 85\(1\);
 - (b) order the financial institution to submit to the Bank of Uganda within forty-five days after the making of the order, a capital restoration plan to restore the financial institution to capital adequacy as prescribed in sections 25 and 26 within one hundred eighty days of making that order.
- (3) In addition to the actions prescribed in subsection (2), the Bank of Uganda may appoint a person, suitably qualified and competent in the opinion of the Bank of Uganda, to advise and assist the financial institution in designing and implementing the capital restoration plan, and the person appointed shall regularly report to the Bank of Uganda on the progress of the capital restoration plan.
- (4) Where a financial institution has been ordered by the Bank of Uganda to submit a capital restoration plan or to add more capital, and the financial institution fails, refuses or neglects to comply with the order, or to implement the capital restoration plan, the Bank of Uganda shall—
 - (a) prohibit the financial institution from opening new branches;
 - (b) impose restrictions on growth of assets or liabilities of the financial institution as it shall deem fit;
 - (c) restrict the rate of interest on savings and time deposits payable by the financial institution to such rates as the Bank of Uganda shall determine; and
 - (d) in addition to the actions prescribed in subsection (2), the Bank of Uganda may—
 - (i) remove the officers of the financial institution responsible for the non-compliance with the orders by the financial institution; or

- (ii) order the financial institution to do any or such other things that the Bank of Uganda may deem necessary to rectify the capital deficiency of the financial institution.

87. Significantly under-capitalised financial institutions

- (1) Where a financial institution is significantly under-capitalised, the Bank of Uganda shall immediately take any or all of the following actions against the financial institution—
 - (a) take any or all of the actions prescribed in section 86 and this section;
 - (b) enter into an agreement with the board of directors of the financial institution requiring the financial institution to rectify its significant under-capitalisation within ninety days, and to restore capital adequacy within one hundred eighty days, or within such shorter periods as the Bank of Uganda shall order.
- (2) In addition to the actions prescribed in subsection (1), the Bank of Uganda may take any or all of the following actions—
 - (a) restrict the financial institution from engaging in new foreign exchange business;
 - (b) prohibit the financial institution from engaging in new off-balance sheet transactions.
- (3) Where at any time—
 - (a) after the period specified in subsection (1)(b), the financial institution has failed to raise its capital to the levels necessary to rectify its significant under-capitalisation; or
 - (b) before the end of the period specified in subsection (1)(b), the financial position of the institution continues to deteriorate, the Bank of Uganda shall without having to wait for the expiry of that period, close the financial institution and place it under receivership, or where the closure of the financial institution would pose a systemic risk to the stability of the financial system, the Bank of Uganda shall take the financial institution into statutory management in accordance with section 88; except that section 89\(6\) shall not apply to a statutory management under this section.
- (4) For the purposes of this Act, a “significantly under-capitalised” financial institution is one which does not comply with any of the following—
 - (a) hold the minimum capital funds, unimpaired by losses, of at least fifty percent of the requirement prescribed in section 25;
 - (b) hold core capital of at least fifty percent of the requirement prescribed in section 26;
 - (c) hold total capital of at least fifty percent of the requirement prescribed in section 26.
- (5) This section shall not be construed so as to preclude the Bank of Uganda from closing any financial institution under any other provision of this Act.

88. Management takeover

- (1) The Bank of Uganda may take over the management of a financial institution if—
 - (a) it is conducting its business in a manner contrary to this Act;
 - (b) the continuation of its activities is detrimental to the interests of depositors;
 - (c) it refuses to submit itself to inspection by the Bank of Uganda as required by this Act;
 - (d) its licence has been revoked under section 16; or
 - (e) it is engaged in or is knowingly facilitating criminal activities.

- (2) Where the Bank of Uganda takes over the management of a financial institution under this section or closes the financial institution under any provision of this Act, the following shall apply—
- (a) any term whether statutory, contractual or otherwise on the expiration of which a claim of right of the financial institution would expire or be extinguished, shall be extended six months from the date of taking over management;
 - (b) any attachment or lien existing six months prior to the takeover by the Bank of Uganda of the management of the financial institution shall be vacated and no attachment or lien except a lien created by the Bank of Uganda, shall attach to any property or asset of the financial institution as long as the Bank of Uganda continues to manage the financial institution;
 - (c) any transfer of any asset of the financial institution made six months before the takeover by the Bank of Uganda of the management, with intent to affect a preference or at less than the appraised book value is void;
 - (d) any gratuitous transfer of any asset of the financial institution made within one year before the takeover by the Bank of Uganda of the management shall stand revoked and all such assets shall be surrendered to the Bank of Uganda; and
 - (e) any lending or other credit accommodation to any officer, director or any related person of an officer or director on preferential terms or without adequate security made within six months prior to the takeover by the Bank of Uganda of the management of the financial institution shall be rescinded; and that officer, director or related person to the officer or director shall immediately refund the money advanced and the interest accrued at the going rate in the bank.

89. Powers of Bank of Uganda on taking over management of financial institution

- (1) The Bank of Uganda shall, on taking over management of a financial institution under section 88, have exclusive powers of management and control of the affairs of the financial institution.
- (2) The powers referred to in subsection \(1\) shall include power to—
- (a) continue or discontinue any of its operations as a financial institution notwithstanding the revocation of its licence;
 - (b) stop or limit the payment of its obligations;
 - (c) employ any necessary staff;
 - (d) execute any instrument in the name of the financial institution;
 - (e) initiate, defend and conduct in its name any action or proceeding to which the financial institution may be a party;
 - (f) re-organise or liquidate the financial institution in accordance with this Act;
 - (g) appoint a person to be known as a statutory manager to manage, control and direct the affairs of the financial institution;
 - (h) assume or reject any executory contracts;
 - (i) cancel any leases or tenancy agreements entered into by the financial institution as lessee or tenant;
 - (j) appoint an advisory board of directors;
 - (k) close the financial institution;
 - (l) sell the financial institution; or
 - (m) do any other act which is necessary to enable the Bank of Uganda to carry out its obligations under this section.

- (3) The Bank of Uganda shall as soon as possible after taking over management of a financial institution, appoint an auditor at the cost of the financial institution to make an inventory of the assets and liabilities of the financial institution and submit a report to the Bank of Uganda.
- (4) The Bank of Uganda shall upon taking over management of a financial institution immediately inform the public.
- (5) The Bank of Uganda shall exercise statutory management over a financial institution for the minimum time necessary to bring the financial institution into compliance with prudential standards.
- (6) Where the financial institution does not comply with prudential standards within six months after its being placed under statutory management, the Bank of Uganda shall close the financial institution and place it under receivership.
- (7) Notwithstanding subsection (6), where the Bank of Uganda is of the opinion that—
 - (a) the financial institution is not likely to comply with prudential standards within the period specified in subsection (6);
 - (b) the financial institution is not likely to be able to meet the demands of its depositors or pay its current obligations as and when they fall due; or
 - (c) the continued operation of the financial institution would not be in the best interests of the depositors, the public, or the financial sector,the Bank of Uganda may at any time after taking over statutory management, close the financial institution.
- (8) Upon appointment of a statutory manager, the board of directors shall stand suspended.
- (9) A statutory manager appointed under subsection (2)(g) shall have the functions of the members of the board of directors collectively and individually, including the board's powers of delegation and use of the seal until such a time as the Bank of Uganda shall appoint an advisory board.
- (10) A statutory manager shall, upon assuming the management, control and conduct of the affairs and business of an institution, discharge his or her duties with diligence and in accordance with sound banking and financial principles and, in particular, with due regard to the interests of the institution, its depositors and other creditors.

90. Duties of statutory manager

- (1) Where a financial institution complies with the prudential standards within the period specified in this Part, the Bank of Uganda shall request the shareholders of the financial institution, subject to sections 51 and 52, to appoint an interim board of directors, charged with the management and control of the financial institution.
- (2) The interim board of directors appointed under this section shall hold office on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed in the instrument of appointment, and in any case, at the cost of the financial institution.
- (3) Where, within six months of its appointment, the Bank of Uganda is of the opinion that the interim board of directors is managing the financial institution in accordance with prudential standards, the Bank of Uganda shall request the shareholders of the financial institution, subject to section 51, to confirm the appointment of each eligible individual director.
- (4) The duties of a statutory manager shall include—
 - (a) tracing and preserving all the property and assets of the institution;
 - (b) recovering debts and other sums of money due and owing to the institution;

- (c) evaluating the capital structure and management of the institution and recommending to the Bank of Uganda any restructuring or re-organisation which he or she considers necessary and which, subject to the provisions of any other written law, may be implemented by him or her on behalf of the institution;
 - (d) entering into contracts in the ordinary course of the business of the institution, including raising of funds by borrowing on such terms as he or she may consider reasonable;
 - (e) obtaining from any officers or employees of the institution any documents, records, accounts, statements or information relating to its business;
 - (f) issuing a new balance sheet and profit and loss accounts; and
 - (g) any other duties that may be assigned to him or her by the Bank of Uganda.
- (5) For the purposes of discharging his or her functions under this section, the statutory manager may declare a moratorium on the payment by the institution of its liabilities to depositors and other creditors.
- (6) The declaration of a moratorium shall—
- (a) be applied equally and without discrimination to all classes of creditors;
 - (b) limit the maximum rate of interest or other economic return which shall accrue on deposits and other debts payable by the institution during the period of the moratorium to the minimum rate as may be prescribed by the Bank of Uganda by notice for the purposes of this section except that this paragraph shall not be construed so as to impose an obligation on the institution to pay interest or other economic return at a higher rate to any depositor or creditor than would otherwise have been the case;
 - (c) suspend the running of time for the purposes of any law of limitation in respect of any claim by any depositor or creditor of the institution; or
 - (d) cease to apply upon the termination of the statutory manager's appointment, in which case the rights and obligations of the institution, its depositors and creditors shall, except to the extent provided in paragraphs (b) and (c), be the same as if there had been no declaration under this subsection.
- (7) A statutory manager may, for the purposes of exercising his or her duties under this Act, require any person who has at any time been an officer or director of the financial institution to provide the statutory manager with information relating to the business of the financial institution.
- (8) Any person who wilfully fails, refuses or neglects to provide any information requested under subsection (4) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred fifty currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or both.

91. Prohibition on legal proceedings against financial institution under management of Bank of Uganda

- (1) A person shall not, except—
- (a) with leave of court, on the ground that he or she would be caused exceptional hardship if leave were not granted; or
 - (b) with the prior written consent of the Bank of Uganda, commence or continue with any legal proceeding in any court against a financial institution while the financial institution is under the management of the Bank of Uganda.
- (2) An application for leave under subsection (1) shall not be filed unless the Bank of Uganda receives thirty days' notice of the intention to apply.
- (3) The Bank of Uganda may apply to the court to be joined as a party to the proceedings for leave.

92. Management by Bank of Uganda not relief from contractual obligations

A party to a contract with a financial institution shall not be relieved of the obligations on the ground that the financial institution is under management of the Bank of Uganda.

93. Costs of management

All costs of management by the Bank of Uganda shall be payable by the financial institution and shall be a debt due from the financial institution to the Bank of Uganda.

Part X – Receivership94. Placing of financial institution under receivership

- (1) Subject to this section, the Bank of Uganda may place a financial institution under receivership.
- (2) A financial institution may be placed under receivership—
 - (a) if the Bank of Uganda determines that there is a likelihood that the financial institution will not be able to meet the demands of its depositors or pay its obligations in the normal course of business;
 - (b) if the Bank of Uganda determines that the financial institution has incurred or is likely to incur losses that will deplete all or substantially all of its capital; or
 - (c) if it is significantly under-capitalised.
- (3) Where a financial institution is placed under receivership, the Bank of Uganda or a person appointed by the Bank of Uganda shall become the receiver of the financial institution in receivership.

95. Options available to receiver

- (1) The Bank of Uganda or a person appointed by the Bank of Uganda shall, within twelve months from the date of taking over as a receiver, consider and implement any or all of the following options either singly or in combination—
 - (a) arrange a merger with another financial institution;
 - (b) arrange for the purchase of assets and assumption of all or some of the liabilities by other financial institutions;
 - (c) arrange to sell the financial institution;
 - (d) liquidate the assets of the financial institution.
- (2) The Bank of Uganda or a person appointed by the Bank of Uganda shall take the action described in subsection (1) which in the opinion of the Bank of Uganda—
 - (a) is most likely to result in marshalling the greatest amount of the financial institution's assets;
 - (b) protects the interests of depositors including their interest in the unprotected deposit amounts;
 - (c) minimises costs to the Deposit Protection Fund and losses to other creditors; and
 - (d) ensures stability of the financial sector.

- (3) In determining the amount of assets that is likely to be realised from the financial institution's assets, the receiver shall—
 - (a) evaluate the alternatives on a present value basis, using a realistic discount rate; or
 - (b) document the evaluation and the assumptions on which the evaluation is based, including any assumptions with regard to rates of interest or other economic return, asset recovery rates, inflation, asset holding and other costs.

96. Prohibitions on proceedings against financial institution in receivership

Where a financial institution is placed under receivership—

- (a) no steps may be taken by any person to enforce any security over the property of the financial institution; and
- (b) no other proceedings and no execution or other legal process may be commenced or continued against the financial institution or its property.

Part XI – Liquidation

97. Bar on liquidation or winding up proceedings

- (1) Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, no proceedings for the winding up or liquidation of a financial institution shall be commenced or continued except—
 - (a) where the proceedings are commenced by the Bank of Uganda or its authorised agent; or
 - (b) where the proceedings are commenced by a financial institution under section 98.
- (2) A financial institution shall obtain the approval of the Bank of Uganda before commencing any proceedings under this section.

98. Voluntary liquidation

- (1) A financial institution may, with the prior approval of the Bank of Uganda, apply to the High Court for voluntary liquidation of its operations.
- (2) Subject to subsection (1), a financial institution under voluntary liquidation shall immediately cease all activities except those which are incidental to the orderly realisation, conservation and preservation of its assets and the settlement of its obligations.
- (3) In case of a liquidation under this section—
 - (a) the liability of the shareholders for uncalled subscriptions to the capital stock of the financial institution shall continue until the end of the liquidation process;
 - (b) notwithstanding the provisions of the Insolvency Act, where a financial institution is in voluntary liquidation, the ranking of claims shall be in accordance with section 105; except that the provisions relating to preferential payments in section 11 of the Insolvency Act shall not be applicable to a voluntary liquidation of a financial institution; and
 - (c) the board of directors of the financial institution, shall, before paying creditors holding direct claims and with the approval of the Bank of Uganda, make necessary arrangements to ensure a pro rata distribution among holders of claims that are likely to be reduced to judgment in a court.
- (4) Where the Bank of Uganda is satisfied that the assets of a financial institution which has applied for voluntary liquidation of its operations under this section are not sufficient to discharge its obligations or that the completion of the liquidation of its operation is unduly delayed, the Bank of Uganda may, if it deems fit, place the financial institution in compulsory liquidation in accordance with section 99.

99. Liquidation by Bank of Uganda

- (1) The Bank of Uganda shall, on determination that the financial institution should be liquidated, make an order for the winding up of the affairs of the financial institution.
- (2) The order referred to in subsection \(1\) shall be published in a local newspaper of general circulation in Uganda.
- (3) Notwithstanding anything in the Insolvency Act, where any proceedings for the liquidation of a financial institution are commenced under this section, the Bank of Uganda or any other person appointed by the Bank of Uganda shall be the liquidator of the financial institution.
- (4) Where a person is appointed a liquidator under subsection \(3\), the details of the appointment shall be published in a newspaper of national circulation.
- (5) The remuneration of the liquidator appointed under this section, the costs and expenses of his or her establishment and the costs and expenses of the liquidation shall be met out of the assets of the financial institution under liquidation.

100. Powers of liquidator

- (1) The liquidator may, with the approval of the Bank of Uganda—
 - (a) bring or defend any action or other legal proceedings in the name and on behalf of the financial institution;
 - (b) carry on the business of the financial institution so far as may be necessary for the beneficial winding up of the financial institution;
 - (c) retain advocates, notaries, accountants, appraisers and other professional advisers as may be approved by the Bank of Uganda;
 - (d) make any compromise or arrangement with creditors, or persons claiming to be creditors, or having or alleging themselves to have any claim, present or future, certain or contingent, ascertained or sounding only in damages against the financial institution or by which the company may be rendered liable; or
 - (e) compromise all calls and liabilities to calls, debts and liabilities capable of resulting in debts, and all claims, present or future, certain or contingent, ascertained or sounding only in damages, subsisting or supposed to subsist between the financial institution and a contributory or alleged contributory or other debtor or person apprehending liability to the financial institution and all questions in any way relating to or affecting the assets or the liquidation of the financial institution on such terms as may be agreed, and take any security for the discharge of any such call, debt, liability or claim and give a complete discharge in respect of it.
- (2) The liquidator may—
 - (a) sell the movable and immovable property and things in action of the company by public auction or private contract, with power to transfer the whole of it to any person or company or to sell the same in parcels;
 - (b) do all acts and execute in the name and on behalf of the financial institution, all deeds, receipts and other documents, and for that purpose to use the seal when necessary;
 - (c) prove, rank and claim in the bankruptcy, insolvency or sequestration of any contributory for any balance against his or her estate, and receive dividends in the bankruptcy, insolvency or sequestration in respect of that balance, as a separate debt due from the bankrupt or insolvent, and rateably with the other separate creditors;

- (d) draw, accept, make and endorse any bill of exchange or promissory note in the name and on behalf of the financial institution with the same effect, with respect to the liability of the financial institution as if the bill or note had been drawn, accepted, made or endorsed by or on behalf of the financial institution in the course of its business;
 - (e) raise on the security of the assets of the financial institution any money required;
 - (f) take out in his or her official name, letters of administration to any deceased contributory, and do in his or her official name any other act necessary for obtaining payment of any money due from a contributory or his or her estate which cannot be conveniently done in the name of the company, and in all such cases the money due shall, for the purpose of enabling the liquidator to take out the letters of administration or recover the money, be deemed to be due to the liquidator; but nothing in this paragraph shall be deemed to affect the rights, duties and privileges of the Administrator General;
 - (g) appoint an agent to do any business which the liquidator is unable to do himself or herself;
 - (h) enforce the individual liability of the shareholders and directors of the financial institution;
 - (i) eliminate the interests of shareholders;
 - (j) where liquidation proceedings have been commenced in respect of the financial institution in one country or more, make such payments to a liquidator of the financial institution as may be necessary;
 - (k) generally, realise the assets of the insolvent financial institution;
 - (l) arrange, negotiate and conclude in the interest of the depositors of the financial institution an agreement to the benefit of the depositors and for the purposes of—
 - (i) releasing the liquidator from the obligations of the liquidator in respect of the depositors' claims for payment of their deposits out of the liquidation proceeds;
 - (ii) imposing those obligations on any third party as shall be agreed;
 - (m) by notice in writing require any person who is or has been a director, managing director, secretary, principal officer, manager, officer or employee, agent, accountant or auditor of the financial institution or any person who has custody of any funds or other assets of the institution being liquidated, to—
 - (i) give to the liquidator all reasonable assistance in connection with the liquidation;
 - (ii) appear before the liquidator for examination concerning matters relevant to the liquidation; and
 - (iii) produce any books or documents that relate to the affairs of the institution being liquidated.
- (3) The exercise by a liquidator of the powers conferred by this section shall be subject to the control of the Bank of Uganda; and any creditor or contributory may apply to the High Court for review with respect to any exercise or proposed exercise of any of those powers.
- (4) In exercise of its powers as a liquidator, the Bank of Uganda or its appointed agent shall make a forensic investigation to determine the causes of failure of the financial institution and report on among other things, significant related party transactions, violations of the law and the institution's governing policies and regulations, and unsound business and lending practices.
- (5) Any person who—
- (a) refuses or fails to comply with a requirement of the liquidator which is applicable to him or her, to the extent to which he or she is able to comply with it;
 - (b) obstructs or hinders a liquidator in the exercise of the powers conferred under this Act;

- (c) furnishes information or makes a statement which he or she knows to be false or misleading in any material particular; or
- (d) when appearing before a liquidator for examination in accordance with such requirement, makes a statement which he or she knows to be misleading in any material particular, commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred fifty currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or both.

- (6) A person who, following the forensic investigation, is found to have contravened this Act and the institution's policies and regulations or significantly contributed to the failure of the institution, shall cease to be a fit and proper person for the purposes of this Act.

101. Stay of proceedings

- (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other law, a court shall not entertain any application for stay of proceedings in relation to the liquidation or winding up of a financial institution under this Act.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to an application filed by the Bank of Uganda.

102. Invitation of claims from creditors

The Bank of Uganda or its appointed liquidator shall, immediately after appointment for the purpose of making an estimate of the debts and liabilities of the financial institution, publish once a week for four consecutive weeks in a local newspaper of national circulation a notice calling upon all creditors, secured and unsecured, including depositors, to submit to the Bank of Uganda or to the liquidator within one month from the date of publication, a statement of the amount claimed and the particulars of the claim.

103. Report on assets and liabilities by liquidator

- (1) The liquidator shall within a period not exceeding five months from the date of the appointment of the liquidator, submit to the Bank of Uganda a report detailing the assets of the financial institution in his or her custody or control and their value, and as far as can be established the liabilities of the financial institution to its depositors and other creditors.
- (2) Where a notice is issued under section 102, any statement of claim which is not received by the liquidator before the expiry of thirty days from the date of publication, shall not be treated as a claim eligible for payment under liquidation but shall be treated as an ordinary debt due from the financial institution.
- (3) A person who fails to file a claim with the liquidator in the period prescribed in subsection (1) shall not be entitled to be paid in priority to other debts but shall be treated as an ordinary debt due from the financial institution.
- (4) Where a financial institution is under liquidation, every depositor of the financial institution shall be deemed to have filed his or her claim for the amount shown in the books of the financial institution as standing to his or her credit.
- (5) The liquidator shall be entitled to deduct from the amount referred to in subsection (4)–
 - (a) any amount paid to the depositor from the Deposit Protection Fund;
 - (b) such other amounts as may be due from the depositor to the financial institution.
- (6) The liquidator shall in the administration of the assets of the financial institution and in the distribution of those assets among its creditors, comply with the directions of the Bank of Uganda.

104. Creditors and contributories meeting

The Bank of Uganda or the liquidator may summon a meeting of creditors or contributories, except that where the Bank of Uganda or the liquidator considers that no object will be achieved by the meeting, sufficient to justify the delay and expense, the meeting may be dispensed with.

105. Payment to creditors and ranking of claims

- (1) The liquidator shall, within two months after submission of a report of the assets and liabilities of the financial institution, commence the payment to depositors and creditors of the financial institution, except that payment shall be made—
 - (a) firstly, to the Deposit Protection Fund;
 - (b) secondly to the liquidator for all expenses incurred in the process of liquidating the financial institution;
 - (c) thirdly to employees for all wages and salaries due net of any liabilities to the financial institution;
 - (d) fourthly to secured creditors, to rank in pari passu;
 - (e) fifthly to depositors for deposits which are in excess of the protected deposit amount; and
 - (f) lastly to other creditors, to rank in pari passu.
- (2) Section 11 of the Insolvency Act shall not apply to a liquidation of a financial institution.
- (3) Where any assets remain after the payment by the liquidator of all claims against the financial institution, the remaining assets shall be distributed among the shareholders in accordance with their respective rights and interests.

106. Financial ledgers and financial records of liquidator

- (1) A liquidator shall keep proper financial ledgers and financial records in a manner prescribed by the Bank of Uganda in which shall be recorded all financial transactions relating to the liquidation.
- (2) When the liquidator has realised all the property of the financial institution, or so much of it as can, in the opinion of the liquidator, be realised without needlessly protracting the liquidation, and has made distribution to all depositors and creditors, the liquidator shall cause audited financial statements to be submitted to the Bank of Uganda.
- (3) A liquidator is not liable where the liquidator relies in good faith on—
 - (a) financial statements of the institution represented to the liquidator by an officer of the institution, or a written report of the auditor or auditors of the institution, to reflect fairly the financial condition of the institution; or
 - (b) an opinion, a report or a statement of a lawyer or advocate, a notary, an accountant, an appraiser or other professional adviser retained by the liquidator.
- (4) Where a liquidator has reason to believe that any property of the institution is in the possession or under the control of a person or that a person has concealed, withheld or misappropriated any such property, the liquidator may apply to the High Court for an order requiring that person to appear before the court at the time and place designated in the order and to be examined.
- (5) Where an examination conducted pursuant to subsection \(4\) discloses that a person has concealed, withheld or misappropriated any property of the institution, the court may order that person to restore the property or pay compensation to the liquidator.

107. Release of liquidator

- (1) Where the Bank of Uganda is satisfied that the audited financial statements present a correct state of affairs of the liquidation, and is satisfied with the performance of the liquidator, the Bank of Uganda may release the liquidator and discharge the liquidator from all liability in respect of any act done or default made by the liquidator in the administration of the affairs of the financial institution; except that such order may be revoked on proof that it was obtained by fraud, suppression or concealment of any material fact.
- (2) The release of the liquidator shall operate as the liquidator's removal from office.

Part XII – Deposit Protection Fund108. Deposit Protection Fund

- (1) The Deposit Protection Fund established in the Bank of Uganda shall continue to exist in accordance with this Part.
- (2) The Fund shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession and may sue or be sued in its corporate name.
- (3) For the avoidance of doubt, the Fund shall be a separate legal entity from the Bank of Uganda.

109. Purpose of Fund

The Fund—

- (a) shall be a deposit insurance scheme for customers of contributing institutions;
- (b) may act as a receiver or liquidator of a financial institution, if appointed for that purpose by the Bank of Uganda; and
- (c) may perform such other functions as may be conferred upon it by law.

110. Board of Fund

- (1) The Fund shall be governed by the Board comprising—
 - (a) a Chairperson who shall be appointed by the Minister;
 - (b) the Governor or his or her representative;
 - (c) the Secretary to the Treasury or his or her representative;
 - (d) two representatives of contributing institutions; and
 - (e) two persons appointed by the Minister, with experience in the business of banking or other financial services to represent the public.
- (2) A person shall not be appointed a member of the Board who is a member of Parliament or of a local government council, a salaried employee of any Government entity, a director, officer, employee or significant shareholder of any institution whose deposits are protected under this Part or the Microfinance Deposit-Taking Institutions Act.
- (3) A member of the Board appointed under subsection (1)(a), (d) or (e) shall serve for five years.
- (4) A person appointed member of the Board shall be eligible for re-appointment for one further term.
- (5) A member of the Board may resign in writing addressed to the Minister.

- (6) The Minister may remove a person appointed to the Board only where the person—
- (a) becomes disqualified under subsection (2);
 - (b) is adjudged bankrupt or enters into a scheme of arrangement with his or her creditors;
 - (c) is absent, without leave of the chairperson, from three consecutive meetings of the Board; or
 - (d) is suffering from mental illness or otherwise incapable of performing the duties of a member of the Board.

111. Contributions to Fund by financial institutions

- (1) Every financial institution shall contribute to the Fund in accordance with this section.
- (2) The Fund shall serve on a financial institution a notice specifying the amount and the period, which shall not be later than twenty-one days after the date of service of the notice, within which the amount shall be paid into the Fund by the financial institution.
- (3) A financial institution which, for any reason, does not pay its contribution to the Fund within the period specified in a notice issued under subsection (2), shall be liable to pay to the Fund a civil penalty interest charge of 0.5 percent of the unpaid amount for every day outside the notice period on which the amount remains unpaid.
- (4) The minimum annual amount of contribution to the Fund under this section shall not be less than 0.2 percent of the average weighted deposit liabilities of the financial institution in its previous financial year; except that the Board may vary the percentage by regulations.
- (5) Where the Bank of Uganda finds that the affairs of a financial institution are being conducted in a manner detrimental to the interests of depositors and the financial institution, and if the Bank of Uganda is of the opinion that the continued conduct may cause loss to the Fund, it may advise the Board to increase the contribution of that financial institution to the Fund.
- (6) The Board may by notice increase the contributions of the financial institution referred to in subsection (5) beyond the rate set out in subsection (4).
- (7) The increased contributions effected under subsection (6) shall be risk adjusted contributions based on the quarterly ratings resulting from the Bank of Uganda's off-site surveillance reports.
- (8) A financial institution whose overall performance shows an unsatisfactory or marginal rating shall be charged on a quarterly basis as follows—
 - (a) marginal; additional charge of 0.1 percent of the average weighted deposit liabilities in addition to the contribution in subsection (3);
 - (b) unsatisfactory; additional charge of 0.2 percent of the average weighted deposit liabilities in addition to the contribution in subsection (3).

112. Finances of Fund

- (1) The finances of the Fund shall consist of—
 - (a) money contributed to the Fund by financial institutions under section 111;
 - (b) money contributed to the Fund by microfinance deposit-taking institutions under section 111;
 - (c) grants;
 - (d) income from investments of the Fund; and
 - (e) money borrowed by the Board for purposes of the Fund under subsection (3).

- (2) The Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, fix the size of the Fund sufficient to protect the interests of depositors to be made up by the contributions under section 111 and of the Board.
- (3) The Board may borrow any such amount as it may require for temporary purposes of making up the deficiency in the Fund pending collection of contributions.
- (4) The Board shall maintain an account with the Bank of Uganda on which the finances of the Fund shall be deposited.

113. Payments out of Fund

- (1) There shall be chargeable to the Fund the administrative expenses of the Board, repayment of money borrowed by the Board and payments made in respect of protected deposits.
- (2) For the purpose of determining a “protected deposit” under this section, the amount being the aggregate credit balance of any accounts maintained by a customer at a financial institution less any liability of the customer to the financial institution, shall be a protected deposit to the extent determined by the Minister by statutory instrument.
- (3) Subsection (2) shall not be construed so as to impose an obligation on the liquidator to set off any liability of a depositor in a financial institution.
- (4) A customer of a financial institution may, if the financial institution is closed, lodge a claim with the Board in such form as the Board may approve for payment to the customer out of the Fund of any protected deposit which the customer would, but for the closure, have been paid if the customer had demanded payment from the financial institution.
- (5) The Board shall make payment of the protected deposit to customers within ninety days after closure of the financial institution.
- (6) The Board may, before paying any claim lodged under this subsection, require the claimant to furnish it with documentary proof as may be proper to show that the person is entitled to payment out of the Fund, and the Board may decline to make any payment under this section to a person who, in the opinion of the Board is responsible for or has profited directly or indirectly from the circumstances leading to the closure of the financial institution.
- (7) The Bank of Uganda or its appointed liquidator may direct the Board to withhold payment of such portion of the protected deposit of any customer in an insolvent financial institution as may be required to satisfy, whether fully or in part, any liability of that customer to the insolvent institution.
- (8) Notwithstanding subsections (6) and (7), the Board may carry out inspections and ascertain the type, number and values of the protected deposits which, but for the closure would be payable by the financial institution.
- (9) Upon payment of a protected deposit the Board shall be entitled to receive from the financial institution or liquidator, as the case may be, an amount equal to the payment made by the Fund on account of its subrogation to the claims of any customer or depositor in accordance with this Act.
- (10) For the purposes of this section, “customer” includes any person entitled to a deposit as trustee or a person holding any deposits jointly.
- (11) A person or authority shall not pay a depositor of a failed or closed financial institution any money in excess of the protected deposits under the Fund.

114. Annual report of Deposit Protection Fund

- (1) The Board shall, within four months after the close of each financial year, submit audited financial statements and an annual report of the operation of the Fund to the Minister and contributing financial institutions and microfinance deposit-taking institutions.

- (2) The annual report shall include the following—
 - (a) a self-assessment on the Fund’s performance in relation to its statutory duties;
 - (b) statistical data on insured institutions and an analysis of potential of future losses;
 - (c) details of the operations of the Fund including the contributions collected, the management of the Fund, the deposits paid, the remuneration and allowances paid to the Board, the receivership and liquidation activities, the internal governance and its management.
- (3) The financial statements shall be prepared and audited within four months after the end of the financial year.

115. Financial year of Fund

The financial year of the Fund shall be the period of twelve months commencing on the 1st day of July and ending on the 30th day of June of the following year.

116. Public awareness

- (1) The Fund shall provide institutions with display material containing the Fund logo.
- (2) Every institution shall permanently exhibit the display material at its public entrance and exit doors and adjacent to each teller station in its banking hall.
- (3) Every institution shall display the statement “Deposit Protected by the Deposit Protection Fund” on all websites, official stationery and print advertising.
- (4) All radio and television adverts made by the institution shall contain a statement that its deposits are protected by the Deposit Protection Fund.

117. Regulations to operationalise Fund

The Board of the Fund may, after consultation with the Minister, make regulations for the proper management of the Fund.

Part XIII – Amalgamations, arrangements and affected transaction

118. Amalgamations and arrangements

- (1) No amalgamation or arrangement which involves a financial institution as one of the principal parties to the relevant transaction, and no arrangement for the transfer of all or any part of the assets and liabilities of a financial institution to another person, shall have legal force unless prior consent of the Bank of Uganda to the transaction in question has been obtained.
- (2) The Bank of Uganda shall not grant its consent referred to in subsection (1) unless—
 - (a) it is satisfied that the transaction in question will not be detrimental to the public interest;
 - (b) in the case of an amalgamation referred to in subsection (1), the amalgamation is an amalgamation of financial institutions only; or
 - (c) in the case of an acquisition or a transfer of assets and liabilities referred to in subsection (1) which involves the transfer by the transferor financial institution of the whole or any part of its business as a financial institution, the transfer is effected to another financial institution approved by the Bank of Uganda for the purpose of that transfer.
- (3) Upon the coming into effect of a transaction effecting the amalgamation of one financial institution with another financial institution under subsection (2)(b), or effecting the transfer of all or part of the assets and liabilities of one financial institution to another financial institution under subsection (2)(c)–

- (a) all the assets and liabilities of the amalgamating financial institutions or, in the case of the transfer of assets and liabilities, those assets and liabilities of the transferor financial institution that are transferred under the transaction, shall vest in and become binding upon the amalgamated financial institution or, as the case may be, the financial institution taking transfer of those assets and liabilities;
 - (b) the amalgamated financial institution or, in the case of the transfer of assets and liabilities, the financial institution taking transfer of those assets and liabilities, shall have the same rights and be subject to the same obligations as those which the amalgamating financial institution or, as the case may be, the transferor financial institution is or to which they or it is subject immediately before the amalgamation or transfer;
 - (c) all agreements, appointments, transactions and documents entered into, made, drawn up or executed with, by or in favour of any of the amalgamating financial institutions or, as the case may be, the transferor financial institution, and in force immediately prior to the amalgamation or transfer, but excluding such agreements, appointments, transactions and documents that, by virtue of the terms and conditions of the amalgamation or transfer, are not to be retained in force, shall remain in force and shall be construed for all purposes as if they had been entered into, made, drawn up or executed with, by or in favour of the amalgamated financial institution or, as the case may be, the financial institution or person taking transfer of the assets and liabilities in question; and
 - (d) any bond, pledge, guarantee or instrument to secure future advances, facilities or services by any of the amalgamating financial institutions or, as the case may be, by the transferor financial institution, which was in force immediately prior to the amalgamation or transfer, shall remain in force and shall be construed as a bond, pledge, guarantee or instrument given to or in favour of the amalgamated financial institution or, as the case may be, the financial institution or person taking transfer of those assets and liabilities, as security for future advances, facilities or services by that financial institution or person except where, in the case of the transfer, any obligation to provide such advances, facilities or services is not included in the transfer.
- (4) Any amalgamation or arrangement or any arrangement for the transfer of assets and liabilities, referred to in subsection (1), excluding a transfer other than a transfer that is referred to in subsection (2)(c), shall be subject to–
- (a) confirmation at a general meeting of shareholders of each of the financial institutions concerned; or
 - (b) in the case of a transaction effecting the transfer of assets and liabilities of one financial institution to another financial institution under subsection (2)(c), confirmation at a general meeting of shareholders of the transferor financial institution and the financial institution taking transfer of those assets and liabilities; and the notice convening the meeting shall contain or have attached to it the terms and conditions of the relevant agreement or arrangement.
- (5) Notice of the passing of the resolution confirming any amalgamation or arrangement, or any arrangement for the transfer of assets and liabilities, under subsection (4) together with a copy of the resolution and the terms and conditions of the relevant agreement or arrangement, duly certified by the chairperson of the meeting at which the resolution was passed and by the secretary of the financial institution or person concerned, shall be sent to the Bank of Uganda by each of the financial institutions involved or, in the case of a transaction effecting the transfer of assets and liabilities of one financial institution to another financial institution under subsection (2)(c), by the relevant transferor financial institution and the financial institution taking transfer of the assets and liabilities, and after having received the notices from all the parties to the relevant agreement or arrangement, the Bank of Uganda shall register those notices.

- (6) Upon the registration by the Bank of Uganda of the notices referred to in subsection (5)—
- (a) of any amalgamation of two or more financial institutions, the licences of the individual financial institutions which were parties to the amalgamation shall be deemed to be cancelled and the Bank of Uganda shall withdraw those licences and, on payment by the financial institution created by the amalgamation of the prescribed registration fee, license the financial institution subject to the necessary modifications to the provisions of Part II of this Act, as a financial institution; or
 - (b) of any arrangement for the transfer of all the assets and liabilities of a financial institution, the licence of that financial institution shall be deemed to be cancelled and shall be withdrawn by the Bank of Uganda.
- (7) Upon licensing of a financial institution by the Bank of Uganda under subsection (6), the Bank of Uganda shall issue a licence to the financial institution.
- (8) The Registrar of Companies, Registrar of Titles and every officer or person in charge of a deeds registry or any other office, if, in his or her office or in any register under his or her control—
- (a) there is registered any title to property belonging to, or any bond or other right in favour of, or any appointment of or by;
 - (b) there is registered any share, stock, debenture or other marketable security in favour of; or
 - (c) there has been issued any licence to or in favour of, any financial institution which has amalgamated with another financial institution, or any financial institution which has transferred all or part of its assets and liabilities to another financial institution, and, if satisfied—
 - (i) that the Bank of Uganda has consented under subsection (1) to the amalgamation or transfer; and
 - (ii) that the amalgamation or transfer has been duly affected, and upon production to him or her of any relevant deed, bond, share, stock debenture, certificate, letter of appointment, licence or other document,shall make such endorsements on the documents and effect such alterations in the registers as may be necessary to record the transfer of the relevant property, bond or other right, share, stock, debenture, marketable security, letter of appointment or licence and of any rights under it to the amalgamated financial institution or, as the case may be, to the financial institution that has taken transfer of the assets and liabilities.
- (9) No transfer duty, stamp duty, registration fees, licence duty or other charges shall be payable in respect of—
- (a) a transfer under subsection (8) taking place in the execution of a transaction entered into at the instance of the Bank of Uganda in the interest of the financial institution or its depositors or the maintenance of a stable financial sector; or
 - (b) any endorsement or alteration made to record the transfer, upon submission to the Registrar of Companies, Registrar of Titles or the person referred to in subsection (8), as the case may be.
- (10) This section shall not affect the rights of any creditor of a financial institution which has amalgamated with or transferred all its assets and liabilities to any other financial institution or taken over all the assets and liabilities of any other financial institution, except to the extent provided in this section.
- (11) In the case of an acquisition to which this section applies, the Bank of Uganda shall, at the cost of the acquiring financial institution, appoint a firm of accountants to examine and report on the financial position of the undertaking being acquired to ensure that the acquisition is not detrimental to the interests of the depositors of the acquiring financial institution.

119. Reconstruction within group of companies

Reconstruction of companies within a group of which a financial institution or subsidiary of a financial institution is a member shall not be affected without the prior written approval of the Bank of Uganda.

120. Alteration of memorandum and articles

(1) No—

- (a) alteration under the Companies Act, of the memorandum of association or articles of association of a company registered as a financial institution; or
- (b) change under the Companies Act, of the name of a company registered as a financial institution; shall have legal force for the purposes of this Act or any other law unless the alteration or change of name has been approved in writing by the Bank of Uganda prior to the registration of the alteration or change of name by the Registrar of Companies.

- (2) An application for approval by the Bank of Uganda under subsection (1) shall be lodged with the Bank of Uganda before the proposed special resolution authorising the alteration or change in question is laid before a general meeting of the company; and the application shall be accompanied by—
 - (a) two copies of the proposed special resolution; and
 - (b) an explanation of the reasons for the resolution.
- (3) The Bank of Uganda shall not approve the alteration or change of name if it is of the opinion that—
 - (a) the proposed alteration is inconsistent with any provision of this Act or is undesirable insofar as it concerns the activities of financial institutions; or
 - (b) the proposed new name is unacceptable on the ground that it is identical with the name of an existing financial institution, or that it closely resembles the name of an existing financial institution that one is likely to be mistaken for the other.
- (4) A financial institution shall, within twenty-one days after the registration by the Registrar of Companies of an alteration of its memorandum of association or articles of association or a change of its name, furnish the Bank of Uganda with a certified copy of the special resolution which sets out the alteration or change of name, as the case may be.

- (5) Upon receipt under subsection (4) of a copy of a special resolution, and payment by the concerned financial institution of the prescribed fee, the Bank of Uganda shall—
 - (a) in the case of a special resolution relating to an alteration of a memorandum of association or articles of association, register the alteration in question and issue to the financial institution a certificate to the effect that the alteration has been registered by the Bank of Uganda with effect from a date specified in the certificate; or
 - (b) in the case of a special resolution relating to a change of name, change the name of the financial institution in the register of financial institutions, and issue to the financial institution a certificate of the change of name.
- (6) An alteration referred to in subsection (5)(a) shall not take effect until it has been registered under that subsection.
- (7) Subsections (1), (2) and (3) shall not apply with respect to any alteration of a memorandum of association or articles of association of a financial institution in accordance with a direction by the Bank of Uganda under this Act.

121. Alteration of memorandum and articles of association in accordance with directions of Bank of Uganda

- (1) The Bank of Uganda may, at any time in writing, direct a financial institution to affect such alteration, not contrary to any provision of this Act, to its memorandum of association or articles of association as the Bank of Uganda may deem desirable in order to remove anomalies or undesirable divergences in the activities of different financial institutions.
- (2) An alteration directed by the Bank of Uganda under subsection (1) shall, on or before the day of the first annual general meeting, referred to in the Companies Act, after the date of the direction, be submitted for consideration by the shareholders of the financial institution.
- (3) If a financial institution refuses or fails to alter its memorandum of association or articles of association in accordance with a direction of the Bank of Uganda under subsection (1), the Bank of Uganda may submit a copy of that direction to the Registrar of Companies, who shall deal with the proposed alteration in accordance with the Companies Act, as if it were contained in a special resolution adopted by the financial institution and submitted to him or her by that financial institution in accordance with that Act.

Part XIV – Special provisions on Islamic banking

122. Licensing of financial institutions to conduct Islamic financial business

- (1) A licensed financial institution carrying on business, may apply to the Bank of Uganda in accordance with this Part to carry on Islamic financial business in addition to its existing licensed business.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a licensed financial institution which is permitted to carry out Islamic banking shall carry out that business through an Islamic window.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), an “Islamic window” means the part of a financial institution, other than an Islamic financial institution, which conducts Islamic financial business.
- (4) For the avoidance of doubt, a financial institution shall, in respect of Islamic financial business carried on by it, be subject to the provisions of this Part.
- (5) The Bank of Uganda shall, in consultation with the Minister, by statutory instrument, make special provisions for the licensing and operation of Islamic banking.

123. Shari’ah advisory board

- (1) Every financial institution which conducts Islamic financial business shall appoint and maintain a Shari’ah advisory board.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a “Shari’ah advisory board” means a board appointed by a financial institution in accordance with this Part to advise, approve and review activities of an Islamic financial business in order to ensure that the financial institution complies with the Shari’ah.
- (3) The Bank of Uganda, in consultation with the Minister, shall make regulations in respect of Shari’ah advisory boards including—
 - (a) the size, functions, duties and responsibilities, governance and conduct of Shari’ah advisory boards;
 - (b) the competency, interests and terms of engagement of a member of a Shari’ah advisory board; and
 - (c) the policies, procedures, record-keeping, reviews, reporting and disclosure.

- (4) The appointment, maintenance, operation and conduct of a Shari’ah advisory board shall at all times be carried out in accordance with any applicable rules and policies of the respective financial institution and be the responsibility of the board of directors of the financial institution.

124. Sections 36 and 37 not to apply to Islamic banks

Part XVI – Miscellaneous

126. Branches

- (1) A financial institution shall not open a new place of business or change the location of an existing place of business or change its hours of business without the approval of the Bank of Uganda.
- (2) Before granting any approval under this section in respect of opening a new place of business or change of location of an existing place of business, the Bank of Uganda may require to be satisfied by an inspection of the financial institution or otherwise as to—
 - (a) the history and financial condition of the financial institution;
 - (b) whether the proposed management is fit and proper;
 - (c) adequacy of the capital structure and earning prospects of the financial institution;
 - (d) the convenience and needs of the community to be served; and
 - (e) whether the public interest will be served by the opening of a new place of business or changing of the location of the place or hours of business.
- (3) A financial institution shall not close an existing place of business unless it has given six months’ notice to the Bank of Uganda, or such shorter period of notice as the Bank of Uganda may consider reasonable, of its intention to close the place of business.
- (4) Subsections \(1\), \(2\) and \(3\) do not apply to agent banking.
- (5) For the avoidance of doubt, the approval of change of location of place of business of an agent, closure of place of business of an agent or change of business hours of an agent shall be determined by the financial institution retaining the services of the agent.
- (6) Where a financial institution effects any change under subsection \(5\), the financial institution shall, within the prescribed period after effecting the change, notify the Bank of Uganda.

- (7) A financial institution which contravenes subsection (1) or (3) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred fifty currency points.

127. Representative offices for foreign banks

- (1) A foreign bank may, in such form and in such manner as shall be prescribed by the Bank of Uganda by statutory instrument, apply to the Bank of Uganda for permission to establish a representative office in Uganda to engage in such limited activities, excluding the taking of deposits as the Bank of Uganda may approve.
- (2) An application under subsection (1) shall be accompanied by the prescribed application fee.
- (3) Where a foreign bank is granted permission to establish a representative office in Uganda, it shall not, without the prior permission of the Bank of Uganda, do any of the following—
- (a) change its name;
 - (b) change its management;
 - (c) change its address or location of its registered office in Uganda;
 - (d) close down the representative office; or
 - (e) engage in any other activity other than such limited activity as the Bank of Uganda may authorise the foreign bank to conduct.
- (4) Any person who—
- (a) establishes a representative office of a foreign bank in Uganda without the permission of the Bank of Uganda; or
 - (b) contravenes any of the provisions of subsection (3), commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred fifty currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or both.
- (5) The Bank of Uganda may, by statutory instrument, prescribe the provisions of this Act which shall apply to representative offices of foreign banks in Uganda.

128. Freezing of accounts

- (1) The Bank of Uganda shall, if it has reason to believe that any account held in any financial institution has funds on the account which are the proceeds of crime, direct in writing the financial institution at which the account is maintained to freeze the account in accordance with the direction.
- (2) A financial institution acting in compliance with a direction under subsection (1) shall incur no liability solely as a result of that action.

129. Unclaimed balances

- (1) Whenever any current or savings account or a profit sharing investment has not been operated for a period of two years or a time deposit account has not been operated for a period of two years after the date of maturity of the deposit, no withdrawals shall be allowed on the account except with the permission of two officers of the financial institution out of a number of signatories authorised to grant the permission.
- (2) An account referred to in subsection (1) shall be transferred to a separate register of dormant accounts in the books of the financial institution and a notice in writing of that action shall be given to the depositor at his or her last known address.

- (3) Where any account which is transferable under subsection (2) is subject to a service charge, the charge may continue to be levied up to the date on which the account has been transferred to the separate ledger of dormant accounts; except that no charge shall be levied beyond two years.
- (4) Where an account is transferred to a register of dormant accounts and the account has been on the register for three years, the institution shall advertise in the print media the fact that it has been on the register for three years.
- (5) Any account may be transferred out of the register of dormant accounts if the depositor or, if the depositor is dead, his or her legal representative, makes such request.
- (6) Unclaimed balances shall, after a period of five years from the date of the advertisement, be transferred to the Bank of Uganda and the Bank of Uganda shall employ them to offset costs of supervising financial institutions or as may be prescribed.
- (7) The Bank of Uganda shall refund any unclaimed balances to the depositor of those balances with the financial institution or, if the depositor is dead, his or her legal representative, if a request is made after the dormant account has been transferred to the Bank of Uganda.

130. Disqualification of officers

- (1) A person—
 - (a) who has been a director or officer of, or directly responsible for the mismanagement of a financial institution leading to its liquidation or its being placed under receivership or its management being taken over by the Bank of Uganda;
 - (b) who has been convicted of an offence under section 3; or
 - (c) who is bankrupt or who suspends payment or compounds with his or her creditors,shall not, without the express authorisation of the Bank of Uganda, act or continue to act as a director or officer or be directly or indirectly involved in the management of a financial institution.
- (2) A person who is convicted of an offence involving dishonesty or fraud shall not act or continue to act, in any way, in the management of a financial institution.

131. Officers deemed public officers

132. Fines and penalties

All fines and penalties expressed in monetary terms and recovered by the Bank of Uganda under this Act shall be retained by the Bank of Uganda and used to offset the costs of supervising financial institutions.

133. Obligations under Companies Act and Building Societies Act

Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to relieve a financial institution from any of its obligations under the Companies Act or the Building Societies Act.

134. Protection of the Bank of Uganda²

No suit or other legal proceedings shall lie against the Bank of Uganda or any officer, employee or agent of the Bank of Uganda for anything which is done or is intended to be done in good faith under this Act.

135. Bank holidays

- (1) The Minister may, at any time, by statutory instrument, declare any day to be a bank holiday.
- (2) A financial institution shall not be open to the public on a bank holiday.
- (3) A bank holiday declared under subsection (1) shall not necessarily be a public holiday and nothing in this section shall be deemed to affect the provisions of any law in force relating to public holidays.

136. Offences

- (1) Any person who, being a director, manager or officer of a financial institution or a member of a Shari'ah advisory board—
 - (a) fails to take any reasonable steps to secure compliance with the requirements of this Act;
 - (b) knowingly or recklessly makes any statement or gives any information which is false or misleading in any material particular in answer to any request for information made under any provisions of this Act; or
 - (c) is privy to the furnishing of any false information supplied under this Act,commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred fifty currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or both.

 - (h) has contravened any law protecting members of the public against financial loss;
 - (i) was a director or substantial shareholder or vetted executive manager of any corporate entity that has been or is under involuntary liquidation, receivership or management by the Bank of Uganda or financial sector regulator or by the direction of Court or a creditor mandated administrative process;
 - (j) has been refused admission to, or has been expelled from or has an outstanding probe or pending disciplinary process with, any professional body;
 - (k) has taken part in any improper business practices that discredit or bring into disrepute the said business;
 - (l) has engaged in business practices or conduct that causes or casts doubt as to his or her competence or integrity or soundness of judgment;
 - (m) has been sanctioned by any regulator or professional body or association;
 - (n) has defaulted on a loan as an individual or he or she is a director or has a substantial shareholding or is an ultimate beneficial shareholder in a company that has defaulted on a loan or credit facility;
 - (o) has been the subject of an adverse judgment or has been found guilty on any matter or subject that speaks to their integrity in a civil or criminal proceeding by any lawfully established court;
 - (p) has deliberately misled or attempts to mislead by act or omission, a client, the institution or the regulator that is seeking or sought to authenticate their probity;
 - (q) has deliberately falsified documents to mislead a client, the institution or regulator, or failed to disclose the existence of falsified documents;
 - (r) has deliberately failed to inform the client, institution or regulator, without reasonable cause, of the fact that their understanding of a material issue is incorrect, despite being aware of their misunderstanding;
 - (s) has deliberately prepared or to a material extent, participated in the preparation of inaccurate records or returns;
 - (t) has a record of non-compliance with statutory codes, including but not limited to disciplinary or supervisory or regulatory administrative sanctions; or
 - (u) his or her appointment would result in a conflict of interest, real or perceived.

- (3) Notwithstanding paragraph (2), the Bank of Uganda reserves the right to take into consideration other facets or features not expressly provided for under paragraph (2) that may be applicable to the nominee, to ascertain that the nominee is fit and proper.
- (4) The Bank of Uganda may request any person to furnish such additional information as may be necessary in determining the professional or moral suitability of a nominee.

Part II – Procedure for determining a fit and proper person to manage, control, become a director or substantial in a financial institution

3. Procedure for determination of whether person is fit and proper

- (1) A financial institution shall subject every substantial shareholder, chief executive officer, executive director, director and executive manager to the fit and proper criteria to ensure that they are fit and proper persons.
- (2) A financial institution shall ensure that a nominee substantial shareholder, chief executive officer, executive director, director and executive manager complies with the fitness and probity criteria prior to forwarding the nominee's name to the Bank of Uganda for further review and approval.
- (3) A financial institution shall conduct risk-based evaluations and due diligence on every nominee substantial shareholder, chief executive officer, executive director, director and executive manager and take reasonable steps to verify the authenticity of documents submitted by the applicant against independent sources prior to forwarding them to the Bank of Uganda for vetting purposes.
- (4) The Bank of Uganda shall vet every ultimate beneficial shareholder or owner of proposed or nominated substantial shareholders, in the case of a natural person, director and executive manager and shall grant approval if found to be compliant with the fit and proper test.
- (5) Before approval under subparagraph (4), the Bank of Uganda may, at its discretion, conduct a face-to-face meeting or an online interview with the nominee, where the nominee or ultimate beneficiary is a natural person.
- (6) In determining whether a person is fit and proper to hold a position as a substantial shareholder, chief executive officer, executive director, director or executive manager of the financial institution, a financial institution shall, in general, have due regard to—
 - (a) his or her probity;
 - (b) whether the interests of depositors or potential depositors of the institution are or are likely to be, in any way, threatened by his or her holding of that position;
 - (c) his or her competence and soundness of judgment for fulfilling the responsibilities of the job or position;
 - (d) the diligence with which he or she is fulfilling or likely to fulfil those responsibilities;
 - (e) his or her ability to understand the technical requirements of the business; or
 - (f) his or her ability to clearly demonstrate a tangible or credible contribution to the nominating supervised financial institution business.
- (7) A financial institution shall, at least once in every calendar year, evaluate and update the fit and proper status for each of its board or executive management staff, including conducting performance assessments and appraisals of board directors and executive management as integral to their continuous fit and proper evaluations,

4. Assessing fitness and probity

- (1) A financial institution shall consider the following criteria when assessing the fitness and probity of key personnel within the institution—
 - (a) good character, including honesty, integrity, fairness and reputation;
 - (b) competence, diligence, capability, soundness of judgment; and
 - (c) financial soundness in relation to substantial shareholders.
- (2) With regard to corporate entities which are controlling shareholders, the following shall be taken into consideration—
 - (a) financial soundness and strength;
 - (b) the nature and scope of the business;
 - (c) fitness and propriety of key functionaries; and
 - (d) group structure, if applicable, and organisation charts.
- (3) A proposed shareholder, director or manager shall demonstrate the competence and ability to understand the technical requirements of the business, the inherent risks therein and the management processes required to conduct its operations effectively, with due regard to the interests of all stakeholders.

5. Assessing competence and capability

In assessing the competence and capability of a person, a financial institution shall consider the following—

- (a) whether the person has demonstrated, through qualifications and experience, the capacity to successfully undertake the responsibilities of the position;
- (b) whether the person has been declared mentally incompetent by any official proceeding under the laws of Uganda or elsewhere;
- (c) whether the person has ever been disciplined by a professional, trade or regulatory body or dismissed or requested to resign from any position or office for negligence, incompetence, fraud or mismanagement; or
- (d) whether the person has a sound knowledge of the business and the responsibilities of the position.

6. Financial soundness

- (1) A financial institution shall consider the financial soundness of a nominee, before appointment.
- (2) In determining the financial soundness of a nominee, the financial institution shall consider the following—
 - (a) whether the nominee has been the subject of any judgment or award that remains outstanding;
 - (b) whether the nominee has made any arrangements with his creditors, filed for bankruptcy, been adjudged bankrupt, had assets confiscated, or has been involved in proceedings relating to any of the aforementioned; and
 - (c) whether the nominee has contracted a loan which subsequently turned nonperforming.
- (3) The Bank of Uganda shall, in assessing whether a nominee is fit, consider the following—
 - (a) examine submissions related to the nominee's education and theoretical knowledge within the context of their proposed role in the institution;

- (b) consider the nominee's current and previous roles and positions held, including the nominee's length of service, the nature, complexity and size of the business they were responsible for in the past; their performance assessments in past management or directorship roles and functions; the nature and complexity of past responsibilities held; and the reporting lines and delegated authority that the nominee has been responsible for in their past roles; and
- (c) consider the nominee's time commitment, given their existing obligations to the role or position for which they are being nominated and in considering time commitments, factors such as the number of directorships held, the size, nature, scale and complexity of the institutions where those directorships are held, or the existence of any other professional or personal commitments and circumstances shall form part of the regulatory assessment process for fitness.

7. Obtaining and giving professional references

A financial institution shall, when hiring an executive manager or contracting a director for its board, obtain a professional reference covering a minimum of the last six years of the nominee's employment whether with a regulated entity or otherwise.

8. Obtaining and giving regulatory references
