Part II – Parliamentary elections generally

2. Election of members of Parliament

- (1) A general election of members of Parliament shall be held in accordance with Article 61 of the Constitution.
- (2) Every person elected to Parliament shall take the oath of allegiance and the oath of a member of Parliament specified in the Fourth Schedule to the Constitution.
- (3) Except for the purpose of taking the oaths referred to in subsection (2), no person shall sit or vote in Parliament before taking and subscribing the oaths.

3. By-elections

- (1) Whenever a member of Parliament—
- (a) dies;
 - (b) where the seat of a member of Parliament becomes vacant under Article 83 of the Constitution; or
 - (c) where the seat of a member becomes vacant under section 4, the Clerk to Parliament shall notify the Commission in writing within ten days after the vacancy has occurred; and a by-election shall, subject to section 115, be held within sixty days after the vacancy has occurred.

- (2) A by-election shall not be held under this section within six months before the holding of a general election of members of Parliament.

Part III – Qualifications, disqualifications, tenure of office and right of recall

4. Qualifications and disqualifications of members of Parliament

- (1) A person is qualified to be a member of Parliament if that person—
- (a) is a citizen of Uganda;
 - (b) is a registered voter; and
 - (c) has completed a minimum formal education of Advanced Level standard or its equivalent.
- (2) A person is not qualified for election as a member of Parliament if that person—
- (a) is suffering from mental illness;
 - (b) is holding or acting in an office the functions of which involve a responsibility for or in connection with the conduct of an election;
 - (c) is a traditional or cultural leader as defined in Article 246(6) of the Constitution;
 - (d) has been adjudged or otherwise declared bankrupt under any law in force in Uganda and has not been discharged;
 - (e) is under a sentence of death or a sentence of imprisonment for a term exceeding nine months imposed by a competent court without the option of a fine;

- (f) has, within the seven years immediately preceding the election, been convicted by a competent court of a crime involving dishonesty or moral turpitude; or
 - (g) has, within the seven years immediately preceding the election, been convicted by a competent court for contravention of any law relating to elections conducted by the Commission.
- (3) Under the movement political system, a person who is elected to Parliament while he or she is a member of a local government council or who holds a public office shall resign the office before assuming the office of a member of Parliament.
- (4) Under the multiparty political system, a public officer or a person employed in any department or agency of Government or an employee of a local government or any body in which the Government has controlling interest, who wishes to stand for election as a member of Parliament shall—
- (a) in the case of a general election, resign his or her office at least ninety days before nomination day; and
 - (b) in the case of a by-election, resign his or her office at least fourteen days before nomination day.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (1)(c), any of the following persons wishing to stand for election as a member of Parliament shall establish his or her qualification with the Commission as a person holding a minimum qualification of Advanced Level standard or its equivalent at least two months before nomination day in the case of a general election, and two weeks in the case of a by-election—
- (a) persons, whether their qualification is obtained from Uganda or outside Uganda, who are claiming to have their qualification accepted as equivalent to Advanced Level standard of education;
 - (b) persons claiming to have advanced level qualifications from outside Uganda; and
 - (c) persons claiming to have academic degrees which were obtained outside Uganda.
- (6) A person required to establish his or her qualification under subsection (5) shall do so by the production of a certificate issued to him or her by the National Council for Higher Education in consultation with the Uganda National Examinations Board.
- (7) A person who claims to possess a qualification referred to in subsection (5)(c) shall, before the issuance of the certificate, prove to the satisfaction of the National Council for Higher Education that admission to that qualification was obtained on the basis of Advanced Level standard of education or its equivalent.
- (8) The certificate shall be in the form set out in Schedule 3 to this Act.
- (9) A certificate issued by National Council for Higher Education under subsection (6) shall be sufficient in respect of any election for which the same qualification is required.
- (10) A certificate issued by the National Council for Higher Education under any other enactment, to the same effect as a certificate required to be obtained under subsection (6) shall be sufficient for the purposes of subsection (1)(c).
- (11) A person aggrieved by the grant or refusal to grant a certificate by the National Council for Higher Education under this section is entitled to appeal to the High Court against the decision and the High Court may confirm, modify or reverse the decision.
- (12) The Chief Justice may, in consultation with the Attorney General, make rules to regulate the procedure for appeals under subsection (11) and may for that purpose apply, with or without modifications, rules of court applicable to civil proceedings in the High Court.
- (13) For the avoidance of doubt, if a candidate has an Advanced Level certificate obtained in Uganda or qualifications higher than the prescribed qualification obtained in Uganda or obtained from the former University of East Africa or any of its constituent colleges, then, there shall be no need for the verification of his or her qualifications by the National Council for Higher Education.

- (14) The Commission shall not accept for the purposes of this section a statutory declaration or affidavit as evidence of an academic qualification required by this section.
- (15) Under the movement political system, a person holding a public office, or a member of a local government council or a Commission established under the Constitution, wishing to be a candidate shall apply for leave of absence at least sixty days before the expiry of the term of the President; except that in the case of an election taking place other than by reason of the normal expiry of the term of the President, the person shall apply for leave at least fourteen days before the nomination for the election.
- (16) Where a person to whom subsection (15) applies wishes to be a candidate, he or she shall, before proceeding on leave, relinquish any vehicle or office equipment in his or her custody belonging to his or her employer.
- (17) For the purposes of enforcing this section, the Commission shall, by writing, require any candidate to state in writing the facilities ordinarily attached to any office held by that person to which subsection (15) applies or by virtue of that office; and the candidate shall comply with the requirement.
- (18) Every employer to whom subsection (15) relates shall, upon receiving an application by an employee, grant to the employee leave of absence with pay, or where the employee has not earned leave, leave without pay, to seek nomination as a candidate and to be a candidate for election, and for such period as may be requested by the employee.
- (19) In this section, “public service” and “public officer” have the meanings assigned to them by Article 257 of the Constitution; and “public officer” shall, for the avoidance of doubt, include an employee of any Commission established by the Constitution.
- (20) This section applies with the necessary modifications, to an employee of a statutory corporation or of a company in which the Government owns a controlling interest as it applies to a public officer.
- (21) Where any person intends to stand for election he or she shall not accept office as an election officer.

5. Forgery of certificate of academic qualification

Any person who—

- (a) forges a certificate purporting it to be issued by the National Council for Higher Education under section 4\(6\) or utters such a forged certificate; or
- (b) forges any academic certificate for the purpose of nomination for any election under this Act or utters such a forged certificate, commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not less than seventy-two currency points and not exceeding two hundred forty currency points or to imprisonment for a term not less than three years and not exceeding ten years, or both.

Part IV – Information to returning officers and secrecy

6. Information to be given to returning officers

- (1) Whenever it is considered necessary and, in any case, immediately after the date of an election is appointed, the Commission shall transmit to every returning officer—
 - (a) sufficient copies of this Act, and such instructions prepared by the Commission, as are required for the proper conduct of an election by the returning officer and to enable the returning officer to supply to each election officer a copy of those instructions as each election officer may require;

- (b) copies of the voters roll for each polling station within the electoral district;
- (c) sufficient blank report books and other election materials; and
- (d) sufficient funds to cover all the expenses to be incurred by the returning officer in carrying out the electoral process.

subsection (1) substituted by section 4 of [General Notice 2917 of 2024]

- (2) The Commission shall also transmit to each returning officer as soon as practicable, after nomination days, a sufficient number of ballot papers for each constituency within the electoral district of the returning officer in any case not later than three days before the polling day.

7. Secrecy required of election officers and others

- (1) Every candidate, election officer, clerk, agent of a candidate or other person in attendance at a polling station during the counting of the votes shall maintain and aid in maintaining the secrecy of the voting, and no candidate, officer, clerk, agent of a candidate or other person shall—
 - (a) at the polling station, interfere with, or attempt to interfere with, a voter when marking the ballot paper, or otherwise attempt to obtain information with respect to the candidate for whom any voter is about to vote or has voted;
 - (b) at the counting of the votes, attempt to ascertain the number on the counterfoil of any ballot paper;
 - (c) at any time, communicate any information with respect to the manner in which any ballot paper has been marked in his or her presence in the polling station;
 - (d) at any time or place, directly or indirectly, induce or endeavour to induce any voter to show his or her ballot paper after he or she has marked it, so as to make known to any person the name of the candidate for or against whom the voter has cast his or her vote;
 - (e) at a polling station, induce or endeavour to induce any voter to vote for a person other than the person of his or her choice;
 - (f) at any time, communicate to any person any information obtained at a polling station with respect to the candidate for whom any voter at the polling station is about to vote or has voted; or
 - (g) at the counting of the votes, attempt to obtain any information or communicate any information obtained at the counting with respect to the candidate for whom any vote is given in any particular ballot paper.
- (2) A candidate, election officer, agent of a candidate or other person on duty at the polling station shall not, except for a purpose authorised by law, communicate to any person any information as to —
 - (a) the name of the voter who has or has not applied for a ballot paper or voted at a polling station; or
 - (b) the number on the National Voters Register of the voter who has or has not applied for a ballot paper or voted at a polling station.
- (3) A person who has undertaken to assist a person referred to in section 56 to vote, shall not at any time communicate to another person information as to the candidate for whom the assisted voter intends to vote or has voted, or as to the number, if any, on the ballot paper given for the use of that voter.

- (4) A person shall, before assuming the duties of election officer, take and subscribe the oath in Form EO specified in Schedule 3 to this Act.
- (5) Any person who contravenes subsection (1), (2) or (3) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding twenty-four currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or both.
- (6) An election officer who, without lawful authority reveals to any person any matter that has come to his or her knowledge or notice as a result of his or her appointment, commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding twenty-four currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or both.

Part V – District, city women representatives and special interest groups

8. District or city women representatives and special interest groups

- (1) There shall be one woman representative in Parliament for every district as required by Article 78(1)(b) of the Constitution and for every city.
- (2) There shall be the following representatives of special interest groups in Parliament for the purposes of Article 78(1)(c) of the Constitution—
 - (a) for the Uganda Peoples' Defence Forces, there shall be ten representatives at least two of whom shall be women;
 - (b) for workers, there shall be five representatives at least one of whom shall be a woman;
 - (c) for the youth, there shall be five representatives at least one of whom shall be a woman;
 - (d) for persons with disabilities, there shall be five representatives, at least one of whom shall be a woman; and
 - (e) for older persons, there shall be five representatives, at least one of whom shall be a woman.
- (3) In accordance with Article 78(2) of the Constitution, Parliament shall review the representation under Article 78(1)(b) and (c) of the Constitution and may by resolution supported by a simple majority of members of Parliament, retain, increase or abolish any such representation.
- (4) The following provisions shall apply to district women representatives and special interest groups referred to in subsection (2)—
 - (a) in the case of the election of district women representatives—
 - (i) the election shall be by secret ballot;
 - (ii) the election shall be by universal adult suffrage;
 - (iii) subject to the provisions of this Act, the election of district women representatives may be held on a different day from the day on which the general election of members of Parliament elected directly to represent constituencies under Article 78(1)(a) of the Constitution is held;
 - (iv) separate ballot boxes shall be used in respect of the election of district women representatives from those used for the election of members of Parliament directly elected to represent constituencies;
 - (v) the provisions of this Act shall apply with the necessary modifications to the election of district women representatives as they apply to members directly elected to represent constituencies;
 - (b) the representatives of the Uganda Peoples' Defence Forces shall be elected in accordance with section 9;

- (c) the representatives of the youth shall be elected by the district youth councils within each region of representation constituted into an electoral college in accordance with sections 10, 11, 12 and 13 and the female youth representative shall be elected by a national youth conference in accordance with section 14;
 - (d) the representatives of the workers shall be elected in accordance with section 15;
 - (e) the representatives of persons with disabilities shall be elected by an electoral college of representatives of such persons from each district in accordance with section 16.
- (5) Where a new district or constituency is created after the general parliamentary elections, the elections to fill the vacant elective position for the district or constituency member of Parliament shall be held at the next general parliamentary elections.

9. Representatives of Uganda Peoples' Defence Forces

The representatives of the Uganda Peoples' Defence Forces to Parliament shall be elected by the Uganda Peoples' Defence Forces Council as follows—

- (a) the Commander-in-Chief shall in consultation with the leadership of the Uganda Peoples Defence Forces or any other persons the Commander-in-Chief considers necessary, submit a list of at least twenty and not more than thirty officers or militants to the defence forces council;
- (b) the defence forces council shall elect the ten representatives of the army from persons nominated by the Commander-in-Chief; one-third of whom shall be women;
- (c) the Commander-in-Chief shall not nominate a person to the defence forces council unless that person is qualified to be elected a member of Parliament under Article 80 of the Constitution and this Act; and
- (d) voting by the Uganda Peoples' Defence Forces Council shall be by secret ballot.

10. Representatives of youth

- (1) For the purposes of the election of representatives of the youth in Parliament, Uganda shall be divided into four regions namely—
 - (a) the Northern Region;
 - (b) the Eastern Region;
 - (c) the Central Region; and
 - (d) the Western Region.
- (2) The regions shall each comprise the areas of the districts specified in relation to them in Schedule 2 to this Act.

11. Electoral college for youths within region of representation

All the members of a district youth council within each region shall constitute an electoral college for the election of the representative of the youth in Parliament for that region.

12. Qualification for election of representatives of youth

- (1) A person seeking to be elected as a representative of the youth in Parliament shall be aged between eighteen and thirty years and shall also be qualified to be a member of Parliament in terms of Article 80 of the Constitution and section 4.
- (2) Subject to Article 80 of the Constitution and section 4, election shall be open to all youth.

13. Election of representative of youth for each region

- (1) The Commission shall, by notice in the Gazette, appoint three days within which the electoral college of each region shall meet in their region to elect the representative of the youth for that region.

- (6) A duplicate copy of the nomination paper certified by the returning officer shall be given to the candidate.
- (7) A person who uses a convoy of vehicles for the purpose of his or her nomination shall have not more than two vehicles in the convoy and each vehicle shall bear police stickers and shall not carry more than ten persons.
- (8) Any person who contravenes subsection \(7\) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding twenty-four currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or both.

29. Factors which invalidate nomination paper

- (1) A nomination paper shall be signed by persons who are qualified voters in the constituency and if any person, who is not a qualified voter signs the nomination paper, the nomination paper shall be invalid.
- (2) A returning officer shall refuse to accept any nomination paper if—
 - (a) an allegation of ineligibility of the candidate is made and the grounds for the allegation appear on the nomination paper;
 - (b) there appears a major variation between the name of any person as it appears on the nomination paper and the voters roll;
 - (c) there is any imperfection in the nomination paper leading to a substantial diversity from the requirements of this Act.
- (3) A nomination paper which a returning officer has refused to accept for filing may be replaced by another nomination paper or may be corrected; except that a new or corrected nomination paper shall be filed with the returning officer not later than the time for the closure of nomination specified in section 26.
- (4) The returning officer shall, immediately after the expiry of the nomination time, announce the name of every candidate who has been duly nominated.

30. Factors which may invalidate nomination

A person shall not be regarded as duly nominated for a constituency and the nomination paper of any person shall be regarded as void if—

- (a) the person's nomination paper was not signed and countersigned in accordance with section 28\(1\);
- (b) the nomination fee referred to in section 28\(3\) was not lodged with his or her nomination paper;
- (c) the person seeking nomination was not qualified for election under section 4;

- (d) the person seeking nomination has been duly nominated for election for another constituency for which the poll has not taken place; or
- (e) the person has not complied with the provisions of section 4.

31. Where no candidate or where one candidate is nominated

- (1) Where, at the close of the nomination days—
 - (a) no person has been duly nominated for election for a constituency, the returning officer shall report the fact to the Commission and the Commission shall fix a new polling day under section 35 and the Chairperson of the Commission shall appoint fresh nomination days in respect of the constituency in question;
 - (b) only one person has been duly nominated for election for a constituency, the returning officer shall forthwith declare that person duly elected as a member of Parliament with effect from the polling day fixed in accordance with this Act.
- (2) Where a returning officer makes a declaration under subsection (1)(b), the returning officer shall notify the Commission which shall cause to be published in the Gazette a notice of the name of the candidate declared so elected and the day with effect from which he or she was declared elected.
- (3) If, by virtue of an appeal under section 33 or as otherwise permitted under this Act, an additional candidate is later duly nominated, the Commission shall revoke the Gazette notice and the returning officer shall revoke his or her declaration.

32. Inspection of nomination papers and lodging of complaints

A voter registered on the voters roll of a constituency may—

- (a) during office hours on the nomination day at the office of the returning officer, inspect any nomination paper filed with the returning officer in respect of the constituency;
- (b) after the closure of the nomination time and during such period as may be prescribed, inspect any nomination paper in respect of the constituency at such time and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed; and
- (c) lodge any complaint with the returning officer or the Commission in relation to any nomination in respect of the constituency challenging the qualifications of any person nominated.

33. Right to complain to Commission upon rejection of nomination paper

Where a nomination paper of a person has been rejected or has been regarded as void by virtue of section 30—

- (a) the returning officer shall forthwith notify the person of the decision giving reasons for the decision; and
- (b) the person shall have the right to complain against the decision to the Commission within seven days from the date of rejection and the Commission may confirm or reverse the decision of the returning officer within seven days from the receipt of the complaint.

34. Allocation of symbols and colours

- (1) Where an election is contested, the Commission shall as soon as practicable after the nomination days—
 - (a) allocate to each candidate the symbol of his or her political party or organisation in the case of a candidate sponsored by a registered political party or organisation;

- (b) allocate to a candidate who is not sponsored by a political party or organisation, a symbol or colour chosen by him or her; or
 - (c) in any other case allocate such symbol or colour as it considers appropriate.
- (2) A symbol or colour under subsection (1)(b) and (c) shall be chosen or assigned for the purpose of this section from among symbols and colours approved by the Commission for the purposes of the election.
- (3) A person shall not be allocated a symbol or colour which has a tribal or religious affiliation or any other sectarian connotation.

35. Commission to appoint polling day and tallying places

- (1) The Commission shall, as soon as practicable after nomination days, by notice in the Gazette, appoint—
- (a) a day to be known as polling day; and
 - (b) the time and the place where each returning officer will tally the number of votes given to each candidate at each polling station.
- (2) At least ten days before polling day, each returning officer shall—
- (a) fix at his or her office within the district and in each constituency, a list of the names of all the presiding officers and polling assistants appointed under the Electoral Commission Act for each polling station in the electoral district, with the names and numbers of their respective polling stations to enable persons to raise any objections they feel necessary; and
 - (b) permit free access to and afford full opportunity for the inspection of the list by the candidates or their agents and any other interested persons during normal working hours.
- (3) The time to be indicated under subsection (1)(b) as the time when the returning officer will tally the votes given to the several candidates shall, at a general election, be not later than forty-eight hours immediately following polling day.

36. Withdrawal of candidates

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), a duly nominated candidate for election for a constituency may withdraw his or her nomination at any time before polling day or the first polling day, as the case may be, in the election for which the person is standing as a candidate.
- (2) A withdrawal of a candidate under subsection (1) shall be effected by means of a written notification to the returning officer and shall be signed by the candidate personally and the signature of the candidate shall be witnessed by the signatures of two registered voters of the constituency concerned.
- (3) Where a candidate is sponsored by a political party or organisation, the notification shall be signed and filed by the Secretary General of the political party or organisation or any other person authorised by the political party or organisation.
- (4) Any vote cast on polling day for a candidate who has withdrawn his or her nomination shall be invalid.
- (5) Where a candidate withdraws after nomination day and after the ballots are printed, the returning officer shall—
- (a) in writing, inform every presiding officer in the constituency where the candidate has withdrawn, of the fact of the withdrawal; and
 - (b) if time permits, print a notice of the withdrawal and distribute it to each presiding officer.

- (6) Where a candidate withdraws under this section, the presiding officer shall, on polling day—
 - (a) post a notice of the withdrawal in a conspicuous place in the polling station; and
 - (b) when delivering a ballot paper to each voter, verbally inform the voter of the withdrawal.

37. Withdrawal of candidates for election

Where as a result of withdrawal of other candidates for election there remains only one candidate, the returning officer shall immediately declare the remaining candidate elected unopposed.

Part VII – Campaigning

38. Campaign programmes

- (1) Subject to the Constitution and this Act, the Commission may determine the manner and the period during which campaigns shall take place and shall publish that information in the Gazette and forward a copy to each returning officer.
- (2) Each candidate shall give his or her campaign programme to the returning officer and the returning officer shall ensure that campaign meetings by different candidates do not coincide in one parish.
- (3) At campaign meetings the candidate may use the local language of the area.
- (4) A campaign meeting shall not commence until the expiry of nomination days.
- (5) A campaign meeting shall not be held within twenty-four hours before polling day.

- (2) Where a candidate is a Minister or holds any other political office, he or she shall, during the campaign period, restrict the use of the official facilities ordinarily attached to his or her office to the execution of his or her official duties.
- (3) For the purposes of enforcing this section, the Commission shall, in writing, require any candidate to state in writing the facilities ordinarily attached to any office held by that person to which subsection (2) applies and the candidate shall comply with the requirement.
- (4) This section applies with the necessary modifications to an employee of a statutory corporation or company in which the Government owns a controlling interest and a member of a Commission or committee established by the Constitution as it applies to a public officer.
- (5) Any person who contravenes any provision of this section commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding twenty-four currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or both.

44. Where candidate dies

- (1) Where a candidate dies after nominations but before polling day, the Commission shall fix fresh nomination days giving such time as the Commission thinks reasonable to enable new candidates to be nominated.
- (2) Where fresh nomination days are fixed under subsection (1), any candidate previously validly nominated shall not be required to be nominated again.
- (3) An election arising out of a postponement effected under subsection (1) shall as far as practicable be conducted in accordance with this Act.

Part VIII – Voting and voting procedure45. Distribution of election materials

Within forty-eight hours before polling day, every returning officer shall furnish each presiding officer in the district with—

- (a) a sufficient number of ballot papers to cover the number of voters likely to vote at the polling station for which the presiding officer is responsible;
- (b) a statement showing the number of ballot papers supplied under paragraph (a) with the serial numbers indicated in the statement; and
- (c) any other necessary materials for the voters to mark the ballot papers and complete the voting process.

46. Publication of list of polling stations and candidates

- (1) The Commission shall, by notice in the Gazette, publish—
 - (a) a list of the polling stations in each constituency; and
 - (b) a list of the names of the candidates nominated for each constituency in alphabetical order with surnames first.
- (2) The Commission shall forward each list referred to in subsection (1) to all returning officers; and the returning officers shall ensure that the lists relevant to each constituency are published widely in that constituency.

47. Packing and dispatch of election materials

- (1) A political party, political organisation and an independent candidate taking part in an election may, through their duly appointed representatives, be present during the packing and dispatch of election materials.
- (2) The Commission shall provide political parties, political organisations and independent candidates taking part in an election with—
 - (a) the serial numbers of ballot papers supplied to each polling station; and
 - (b) the serial numbers of seals affixed to and enclosed in the ballot boxes supplied to all polling stations, as soon as practicable after packing and dispatch of the election materials, and in any case, not later than twenty-four hours before polling day.

- (3) A replacement of the seals referred to under subsection (2)(b) shall be documented by the presiding officer and witnessed by the agents of the political parties, political organisations and independent candidates present at the polling stations.

48. Polling stations and voting time

- (1) A polling station shall, as far as possible, be located in an open ground, or where there is no open ground, in large premises of convenient access, having an outside door for the admittance of voters, and, if possible, another door through which voters may leave after voting and the polling station shall, as far as possible be such as to facilitate access by persons with disabilities and the aged.
- (2) At every polling station, polling time shall commence at seven o'clock in the morning and close at four o'clock in the afternoon.
- (3) In the process of voting, a voter shall not be allowed to carry a bag or anything that can be used for concealment.
- (4) A person registered as a voter and whose name appears in the voters roll of a polling station and who holds a valid voters card shall be entitled to vote at the polling station.
- (5) If at the official hour of closing the poll as prescribed in subsection (2) there are any voters in the polling station, or in the line of voters referred to in section 49(3) who are qualified to vote and have not been able to do so, the polling station shall be kept open to enable them to vote; but no person who is not actually present at the polling station or in the line of voters at the official hour of closing shall be allowed to vote, even if the polling station is still open when he or she arrives.

49. Polling and polling procedure

- (1) Voting at every election shall be by secret ballot using one ballot box at each polling station for all candidates in accordance with this Act.
- (2) A presiding officer shall not inquire about, or attempt to see, the candidate whom a voter intends to vote; and any person who contravenes this subsection commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding twenty-four currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or both.
- (3) On polling day, all voters intending to vote shall form one line commencing backward from a point each at least twenty metres away from the table at which each voter is to place the authorised mark of choice on the ballot paper.
- (4) A voter who has cast his or her vote and any other persons in the vicinity of the polling station other than election officers, candidates, agents of candidates and observers shall stand or sit at least twenty metres away from the table mentioned in subsection (3).
- (5) At every polling station there shall be positioned—
 - (a) a table where every voter shall report for identification in the voters roll and collection of a ballot paper;
 - (b) a second table positioned at least fifteen metres from the first with an ink pad, two pens, each pen being attached to the table with a string measuring about one metre in length, where every voter shall—
 - (i) fix a tick with a pen or mark with a thumb print in the space provided in the box against the picture or in the picture of the candidate of his or her choice; and
 - (ii) fold the ballot paper, lengthwise to enable it to be deposited in the slot of the ballot box;

- (c) a third table located at least ten metres away from the second and on top of which shall rest a ballot box into which every voter shall deposit the folded ballot paper in the full view of all present; and
 - (d) a fourth table located at least ten metres from the ballot box where every voter, after depositing the ballot paper into the ballot box, shall proceed and have the thumb on the voter's right hand, dipped into indelible ink to indicate that the voter has cast the ballot.
- (6) Where voting takes place for two or more elections in the same premises at the same time the application of the indelible ink under subsection (5)(d) shall be done after the voter votes in the last or only election in which he or she chooses to vote.
- (7) Where for the purposes of subsection (5)(d)—
- (a) the voter has no thumb on the right hand, the process specified in that paragraph shall be applied to the finger nearest to the position of the thumb on the voters right hand;
 - (b) the voter has no right hand the process shall be applied to the left hand;
 - (c) a voter has no fingers on the left or right hand, the voter may dip the tip of any hand into the indelible ink; or
 - (d) the voter has no hands, the process shall be applied to any other conspicuous part of the voter's body as a polling assistant may determine.
- (8) The presiding officer at each polling station shall, at the commencement of the poll and in the full view of at least ten voters who are registered to vote at the polling station, demonstrate to the satisfaction of all present, that the first ballot box is devoid of any contents and after that, place the ballot box on the table under subsection (5)(c).
- (9) Where more than one ballot box is used after the first is filled, the procedure prescribed in subsection (8) shall be followed prior to the placing on the table of any additional ballot box.
- (10) For the purposes of subsection (5), "table" includes a desk, a box, chair, a stool and any other object with a hard and smooth surface that can be used as a table.

50. A person not to vote more than once

- (1) A person shall not vote or attempt to vote more than once at any election irrespective of the number of offices held by the person relevant to the election.
- (2) For the purposes of ensuring that no voter casts a vote more than once, a presiding officer or a polling assistant shall, before issuing a ballot paper, inspect the fingers of any voter in order to ascertain whether or not the voter has been marked with indelible ink in accordance with section 49(5)(d).
- (3) The presiding officer or polling assistant, as the case may be, shall refuse to issue a ballot paper to the voter referred to in subsection (2) if the presiding officer or polling assistant has reasonable grounds to believe that the voter has already voted or if the voter refuses to be inspected under that subsection.
- (4) Any person who refuses to be inspected under subsection (2) and votes or attempts to vote commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding twelve currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or both.

 - (e) the unused ballot papers;
 - (f) the voters roll used at the polling station; and
 - (g) the report book.
- (5) The declaration of results form referred to in subsection \(1\) shall be signed by the presiding officer and the candidates or their agents as are present and wish to do so, and the presiding officer shall there and then, announce the results of the voting at that polling station before communicating them to the returning officer.

70. Collection of results

- (1) The presiding officer shall, immediately after close of polls, deliver the declared results and the sealed ballot box to the subcounty headquarters or the division headquarters to the designated officer of the Commission together with the report book for transmission to the returning officer.
- (2) A polling agent who wishes to accompany the presiding officer to witness the delivery under subsection \(1\) may do so at his or her own expense.
- (3) Every presiding officer shall, without any delay after closing the poll, transmit or deliver to the returning officer or to the nearest results collecting centre—
 - (a) the sealed ballot box;

- (b) the duly filled and signed declaration of results form; and
- (c) the report book filled in and signed by the presiding officer and the polling assistants.

71. Safe keeping of election materials and records

- (1) The returning officer shall be responsible for the safe custody of all the election documents used in the district in connection with an election until the documents are destroyed in accordance with the directions of the Commission, but the Commission shall not give such directions before the settlement of disputes if any arising from the election.
- (2) A returning officer shall, on receipt of each ballot box—
 - (a) take every precaution for its safe custody;
 - (b) examine the seal affixed to the ballot box, with a view to ensuring that the box is properly sealed; and
 - (c) if the box is not in good order, record his or her observations and affix a different seal supplied by the Commission.

72. Tallying of results by returning officer

- (1) After all the envelopes containing the declaration of results forms have been received, the returning officer shall, in the presence of the candidates or their agents or such of them as wish to be present, open the envelopes and add up the number of votes cast for each candidate as recorded on each form.
- (2) The returning officer may open the envelopes and add up the number of votes cast even though some of the envelopes have not been received, if the candidates or their agents and a police officer not below the rank of inspector of police are present.
- (3) Where any envelope under subsection (1) does not contain the results of the poll, the returning officer may, for the purpose of finalising a statement of the poll, use the declaration of results form in the presiding officer's report book.
- (4) If the report book does not contain the declaration of results form duly filled by the presiding officer, the returning officer may, in the presence of a police officer not below the rank of inspector of police and any of the candidates or their agents who wish to be present, open the ballot box in order to obtain the declaration of results form for the purpose of adding up the results of the poll.
- (5) Where the returning officer opens the ballot box under subsection (4) he or she shall re-seal the ballot box immediately after ascertaining the results with the declaration of results forms re-sealed in the envelopes in the ballot box.

73. Cases of mandatory recount

- (1) Where, after the official addition of the votes—
 - (a) there is an equality of votes between two or more candidates obtaining the highest number of votes; or
 - (b) the number of votes separating the candidate receiving the highest number of votes and any other candidate is less than fifty, the returning officer shall, if requested in writing by a candidate, his or her agent or a voter registered to vote in the constituency, in the presence of a senior police officer recount the votes after giving a written notice of the intention to recount to all interested parties.

- (2) Where a recount under this section results in an equality of votes among two or more candidates obtaining the highest number of votes, a run off election shall be held involving only the candidates with equal votes; and the election shall take place not later than thirty days from the date of the recount.

74. Application to chief magistrate for recount

- (1) Within seven days after the date on which a returning officer has, in accordance with section 77, declared as elected the candidate who has obtained the highest number of votes, any candidate may apply to the chief magistrate for a recount.
- (2) The chief magistrate shall appoint the time to recount the votes which time shall be within four days after receipt of the application under subsection (1) and the recount shall be conducted in accordance with the directions of the chief magistrate.
- (3) A candidate who requests a recount under this section shall deposit with the chief magistrate a security for costs of thirty currency points.

75. Recovery of costs of recount

- (1) Where a recount under section 74 does not alter the result of the poll as to affect the declaration by the returning officer under section 77, the chief magistrate court may order the costs of the candidate declared to be paid by the person who applied for the recount.
- (2) The money deposited as security for costs shall, so far as necessary, be paid out to the candidate in whose favour costs are awarded and, if the deposit is insufficient to cover the costs, the chief magistrate court shall order the liable party to pay the balance.

76. Interruption or postponement of counting, tallying or recounting

- (1) Where counting, tallying or recounting of votes is interrupted by a riot or violence or any other cause, the presiding officer or returning officer shall adjourn the counting, tallying or recounting to the next day or to any other time of the same day and shall immediately inform—
 - (a) in the case of the presiding officer, the returning officer; or
 - (b) in the case of the returning officer, the Commission,of that fact.
- (2) Where the counting, tallying or recounting of votes is adjourned to the following day under subsection (1), the time, procedure and manner of the subsequent counting, tallying or recounting shall be as on the original occasion.
- (3) Where counting is adjourned under this section, the ballot boxes shall be kept in safe custody and the candidates or their agents shall be entitled to be present to keep watch on the boxes until counting resumes.

77. Declaration of winning candidate

- (1) Every returning officer shall, immediately after the addition of the votes under section 72(1), or after any recount, declare elected the candidate who has obtained the highest number of votes by completing a return in the prescribed form.
- (2) Upon completing the return, every returning officer shall transmit to the Commission the following documents—
 - (a) the return form;
 - (b) the tally sheets; and
 - (c) the declaration of results forms from which the official addition of the votes was made.

- (3) Every returning officer shall compile and submit to the Commission, within seven days after the conclusion of the election, a detailed report of the election within the returning officer's electoral district.
- (4) Where a returning officer receives notice of a recount under section 74, he or she shall delay transmission of the return and report for the constituency in question until he or she has received from the chief magistrate court a certificate of the results of recount.

78. Declaration of results and reports by Commission

- (1) The Commission shall, after the election, ascertain, declare in writing under its seal and publish, the result of the election in each constituency within forty-eight hours after the close of polling.
- (2) The Commission shall, as soon as practicable after each general election, produce a detailed report on the conduct of the election and submit it to the Minister who shall in turn present it before Parliament.
- (3) For the purposes of a report under subsection (2), every candidate at an election and every official agent of any candidate has the right to send to the Commission a statement in writing containing any complaint that he or she may wish to make with respect to the conduct of the election or of any election officer and any suggestions with respect to such changes or improvements in the law or in the administration arrangements as he or she may consider desirable.

Part X – Election petitions

79. Who may present election petition

- (1) Election petitions under this Act shall be filed in the High Court.
- (2) An election petition may be filed by any of the following persons—
 - (a) a candidate who loses an election; or
 - (b) a registered voter in the Constituency concerned supported by the signatures of not less than five hundred voters registered in the Constituency in a manner prescribed by regulations.
- (3) Every election petition shall be filed within thirty days after the day on which the result of the election is published by the Commission in the Gazette.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, where any rules of court require a petition to be filed in any particular registry of the High Court, the filing of the petition in a registry of the High Court other than in the first-mentioned registry shall not invalidate the petition; and the registrar at the place where it is filed shall take necessary steps to cause the petition to be transferred to the appropriate registry but the court may award costs in respect of such filing.

80. Grounds for setting aside election

- (1) The election of a candidate as a member of Parliament shall only be set aside on any of the following grounds if proved to the satisfaction of the High Court—
 - (a) non-compliance with the provisions of this Act relating to elections, if the High Court is satisfied that there has been failure to conduct the election in accordance with the principles laid down in those provisions and that the non-compliance and the failure affected the result of the election in a substantial manner;
 - (b) that a person other than the one elected won the election;
 - (c) that an illegal practice or any other offence under this Act was committed in connection with the election by the candidate personally or with his or her knowledge and consent or approval; or

- (d) that the candidate was at the time of his or her election not qualified or was disqualified for election as a member of Parliament.
- (2) Where an election is set aside, then, subject to section 82, a fresh election shall be held as if it were a by-election in accordance with section 3.
- (3) A ground specified in subsection (1) shall be proved on the basis of a balance of probabilities.

81. Notice of petition to be served on respondent

Notice in writing of the presentation of a petition accompanied by a copy of the petition shall, within seven days after the filing of the petition, be served by the petitioner on the respondent or respondents, as the case may be.

82. Trial of election petitions

- (1) Every election petition, filed under this Act, shall be tried in open court.
- (2) The High Court shall proceed to hear and determine the matter expeditiously and may, for that purpose, suspend any other matter pending before it.
- (3) If, on the trial of an election petition, it is proved that any person who voted for a candidate—
 - (a) was bribed or subjected to undue influence by the candidate or anyone acting on behalf of the candidate;
 - (b) was guilty of personation or of an illegal practice or was not qualified or was disqualified as a voter at the election; or
 - (c) voted more than once at the election,then without prejudice to any other consequences prescribed for the infringement of any provision of this Act, the vote given for the candidate by that person shall be deducted from the total number of votes given for the candidate at the election.
- (4) After due inquiry, the court hearing an election petition may—
 - (a) dismiss the petition;
 - (b) declare that a candidate other than the candidate declared elected was validly elected; or
 - (c) set aside the election and order a new election.
- (5) The High Court may, before coming to a decision under subsection (4), order a recount of the votes cast.
- (6) At the conclusion of the trial of an election petition, the High Court shall determine whether the respondent was duly elected or whether any, and if so which person other than the respondent was or is entitled to be declared duly elected, and if the High Court determines that—
 - (a) the respondent was duly elected, the election shall be and remain as valid as if no petition had been presented against the respondent's election;
 - (b) the respondent was not duly elected but that some other person was or is entitled to be declared duly elected—
 - (i) the respondent shall be ordered to vacate his or her seat; and
 - (ii) the High Court shall certify its determination to the Commission and the Speaker, and the Commission shall thereupon, by notice in the Gazette, declare that other person duly elected with effect from the day of the determination by the High Court;

- (c) the respondent was not duly elected and that no other person was or is entitled to be declared duly elected—
 - (i) the seat of the respondent shall be declared vacant; and
 - (ii) the High Court shall forthwith, certify its determination to the Clerk to Parliament and the Commission.
- (7) Nothing in this Part confers on the High Court power to convict a person of a criminal offence when hearing any election petition under this Part.
- (8) At the conclusion of the hearing of an election petition, the High Court shall, if it is of the opinion that a person has been proved to have committed a criminal offence in connection with the election to which the petition relates, send a written report to the Director of Public Prosecutions stating the name of the person, the nature of the offence and any other information that the court may consider relevant and appropriate for the Director of Public Prosecutions.
- (9) The High Court shall determine an election petition before it within six months after the petition was lodged in that Court.

83. Witnesses in election petitions

- (1) At the trial of an election petition—
 - (a) any witness shall be summoned and sworn in the same manner as a witness may be summoned and sworn in civil proceedings;
 - (b) the High Court may summon and examine any person who, in the opinion of the court, is likely to assist the court to arrive at an appropriate decision;
 - (c) any person summoned by the High Court under paragraph (b) may be cross-examined by the parties to the petition if they so wish.
- (2) Any witness who, in the course of the trial of an election petition, wilfully makes a statement of fact material to the proceeding which he or she knows to be false or does not know or believe to be true or in respect of which he or she is reckless whether it is true or false, commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding twenty-four currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or both.

84. Withdrawal of election petitions

- (1) An election petition shall not be withdrawn except with leave of the High Court and after notice has been given as the court may direct.
- (2) On the hearing of the application for withdrawal, any person who might have been a petitioner in respect of the election to which the petition refers may apply to the High Court to be substituted as a petitioner for the petitioner who desires to withdraw.
- (3) The High Court may substitute as a petitioner an applicant under subsection (2) and may further, if the proposed withdrawal has been, in the opinion of the court, induced by any corrupt bargain or consideration, by order, direct that the security given on behalf of the original petitioner shall remain as security for any costs that may become payable by the substituted petitioner and that the original petitioner shall be liable to pay the costs.
- (4) If a petition is withdrawn the petitioner shall be liable to pay the costs of the respondent.

85. Appeals

- (1) Any person aggrieved by the decision of the High Court on hearing an election petition, may appeal to the Court of Appeal against the decision.

- (2) The Court of Appeal shall proceed to hear and determine an appeal under this section within six months from the date of filing of the appeal and may for that purpose suspend any other matter pending before it.
- (3) Notwithstanding section 6 of the Judicature Act, the decisions of the Court of Appeal pertaining to parliamentary elections petitions shall be final.

86. Petition to abate on death of petitioner

An election petition shall abate at the death of the sole petitioner or of all the petitioners.

- (1) Subject to Article 84 of the Constitution, the electorate of any constituency and of any special interest group referred to in Article 78 of the Constitution have the right to recall their member of Parliament before the expiry of the term of Parliament.
- (2) The right to recall a member of Parliament only applies when the movement political system is in force.
- (3) A member of Parliament may be recalled from that office on any of the following grounds—
 - (a) physical or mental incapacity rendering that member incapable of performing the functions of the office;
 - (b) misconduct or misbehaviour likely to bring hatred, ridicule, contempt or disrepute to the office; or
 - (c) persistent deserting of the electorate without reasonable cause.

- (4) The recall of a member of Parliament shall be initiated by a petition in writing setting out the grounds relied on and signed by at least two-thirds of the registered voters of the constituency or of the special interest group referred to in subsection (1), and shall be delivered to the Speaker.
- (5) On receipt of the petition referred to in subsection (4), the Speaker shall, within seven days require the Commission to verify whether the petition is initiated within the requirements of subsection (4) and to conduct a public inquiry into the matters alleged in the petition and the Commission shall expeditiously conduct the necessary inquiry and report its findings to the Speaker.
- (6) The Speaker shall—
 - (a) declare the seat vacant, if the Commission reports that it is satisfied from the inquiry, with the genuineness of the petition; or
 - (b) declare immediately that the petition was unjustified, if the Commission reports that it is not satisfied with the genuineness of the petition.
- (7) For the purposes of any inquiry under subsection (5), the Commission shall be assisted by counsel appointed by the Attorney General.
- (8) The member of Parliament to whom the inquiry relates is entitled to appear in his or her own defence and to be represented by counsel of his or her choice.
- (9) Where it is alleged in a petition submitted under subsection (4) that a member of Parliament be recalled on grounds of permanent physical or mental incapacity rendering that member incapable of performing the functions of the office of member of Parliament, the Speaker shall request the head of the medical services of Uganda to appoint a medical board to examine the member of Parliament with a view to establishing the state of health of that member of Parliament and shall immediately notify the Commission of the appointment.
- (10) The member of Parliament shall be informed by the Commission of the appointment of the medical board within seven days after being notified of the appointment.
- (11) If the medical board determines that the member of Parliament in question is unfit for the work of Parliament on the ground specified in subsection (9), that member shall cease to be member of Parliament and the Clerk to Parliament shall notify the Commission of the vacancy under Article 81(2) of the Constitution.
- (12) The medical board shall report its findings to the Commission with a copy to the Speaker.
- (13) Where the Commission reports to the Speaker that the member of Parliament has refused or failed to submit himself or herself to be examined by the medical board, the member of Parliament shall be suspended from proceedings of Parliament for three months from the date the Commission's report is communicated to the Speaker.
- (14) If the Commission further reports to the Speaker that the member in question has refused or failed to submit himself or herself for examination by the medical board within the period of three months referred to in subsection (13), the member of Parliament shall cease to be a member of Parliament upon the date of the report of the Commission and the Clerk to Parliament shall notify the Commission of the vacancy under Article 81(2) of the Constitution.
- (15) A member of Parliament who ceases to hold office under subsection (14) shall be deemed to have been recalled under subsection (3)(a).
- (16) In the case of an allegation under subsection (3)(b), the Commission shall request the Chief Justice to nominate a judicial officer to hear and determine the allegation and report his or her findings to the Commission as soon as possible and the Chief Justice shall nominate a judicial officer accordingly.
- (17) The Commission shall, upon receipt of the findings of the judicial officer, embody them in its report to the Speaker.

- (18) In the case of an allegation under subsection (3)(c), the Commission shall, subject to this section, conduct such investigation and inquiry as may be just and practicable, in accordance with this section and shall report its findings to the Speaker.
- (19) Subject to this section, the Minister shall, by regulations, with the approval of Parliament, prescribe any additional procedure necessary to be followed for the recall of a member of Parliament.

106. Determination of questions of membership

- (1) The High Court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine any question whether—
 - (a) a person has been validly elected a member of Parliament or the seat of a member of Parliament has become vacant; or
 - (b) a person has been validly elected as Speaker or Deputy Speaker or having been so elected, has vacated that office.
- (2) Any person aggrieved by the determination of the High Court under this section may appeal to the Court of Appeal.
- (3) Subject to the provisions of this Act in relation to election petitions, and to the provisions of Article 137 of the Constitution, the Attorney General may petition the High Court under Article 86 of the Constitution for the determination of the question referred to in that Article.
- (4) If, upon application to the Attorney General in writing signed by not less than fifty registered voters stating that a question referred to in subsection (1) has arisen stating the ground for coming to that conclusion, the Attorney General fails to petition the High Court within thirty days after receipt of the application, any one or more of the persons who made the application may petition the High Court for determination of the question.
- (5) A party aggrieved by the decision of the High Court may appeal to the Court of Appeal against the decision and subsequently appeal to the Supreme Court.
- (6) The High Court, the Court of Appeal or the Supreme Court shall proceed expeditiously to hear and determine any question or as the case may be, any appeal before it under this section and may for that purpose suspend any other matter pending before it.
- (7) In any case the High Court shall determine a question under this section within twelve months after the petition in relation to the question was lodged in that Court.

107. Prior consent of Director of Public Prosecutions to prosecute

- (1) A person shall not be prosecuted for an offence under this Act without the consent in writing of the Director of Public Prosecutions.
- (2) Subsection (1) shall not prevent a person from being—
 - (a) charged with an offence under this Act;
 - (b) arrested with or without warrant in respect of any such offence; or
 - (c) remanded on bail or in custody in respect of any such offence,without the consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions.
- (3) If no consent is obtained under subsection (1) within three months from the date of arrest or charge, the person charged shall be discharged.
- (4) In a prosecution for an offence under this Act in relation to a ballot paper or other document, the property in the ballot paper or other document, as well as the property in the counterfoil of any ballot paper, shall be stated to be vested in the Commission.

108. Time within which criminal proceedings must be commenced

Proceedings against a person in respect of any offence under this Act shall be commenced within three months after the offence which is alleged to have been committed or within one month after a court finds, on trial of a petition, that an offence may have been committed.

109. Person not to be required to divulge how he or she voted

A person who has voted at an election shall not, in any legal proceedings, whether taken to question the election or return or otherwise, be required to state for whom he or she has voted.

110. Penalty for interruption

Any person who wilfully interrupts, obstructs or disturbs any proceeding taken under this Act in connection with an election, or disturbs the peace and good order of any such proceedings, commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding twenty-four currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or both.

111. Service of notices and documents

- (1) A public notice required to be given by any person who under this Act shall, except where it is expressly directed to be published in the Gazette or in any other particular manner, be sufficiently given if it is published in a newspaper circulating in the constituency or area intended to be affected by the notice or if it is posted outside the principal outer door of every magistrates' court office in that constituency or area or in such other place or places, if any, as the Commission may determine.
- (2) Except as otherwise specially provided in this Act and without derogation from the provisions of the Interpretation Act, when any notice or other document is required to be served on any person under this Act, it may be served—
 - (a) by delivering it to the person to whom it is addressed or his or her authorised agent;
 - (b) by leaving it at his or her last known place of residence or any place of residence stated on a voters roll as his or her place of residence; or
 - (c) by sending it to any place of residence referred to in paragraph (b) through the post by registered letter marked upon the outside "electoral notice letter" and, unless the contrary is proved, the notice or other document shall be taken to have been served at the time at which the registered letter would have been delivered in the ordinary course of post.

112. When appointed dates fall on weekend or public holiday

Whenever under this Act anything is required to be commenced, concluded or done on a particular day, and that day happens to fall upon a Saturday or Sunday or public holiday, that thing shall be commenced, concluded or done on the day next succeeding the Sunday or public holiday or, if the last mentioned day is also a Saturday or Sunday or a public holiday, then on the day next succeeding the Sunday or public holiday.

113. Rules of court

- (1) The Chief Justice, in consultation with the Attorney General, may make rules as to the practice and procedure to be observed in respect of any jurisdiction which under this Act is exercisable by the High Court and also in respect of any appeals from the exercise of that jurisdiction.

- (2) Without prejudice to subsection (1), any rules made under that subsection may make provision for —
- (a) regulating the practice and procedure of the High Court, the Court of Appeal and the Supreme Court for the purposes of hearing and determining petitions under section 105 or as the case may be, for hearing and determining appeals from decisions of the High Court under that section;
 - (b) the practice and procedure to be observed in the hearing and determining of election petitions;
 - (c) service of an election petition on the respondent;
 - (d) priority to be given to the hearing of election petitions and other matters coming before the courts under this Act.
- (3) Rules made under this section may, in the case of the High Court, the Court of Appeal and the Supreme Court, apply to the proceedings, the rules of practice and procedure applicable to civil proceedings in the High Court, the Court of Appeal or the Supreme Court, as the case may be, subject to such modifications as may be specified in the rules.

114. Saving in respect of vacation of office

Where as a result of the final determination of an election petition or a petition under section 106, the seat of any member of Parliament becomes vacant, the determination of the petition shall not invalidate anything done by that person, during the period preceding the determination, in the purported exercise of the functions of the office of that person.

115. Postponement of vacation of office

- (1) When a member of Parliament—
- (a) is adjudged or declared to be suffering from mental illness;
 - (b) is adjudged or declared bankrupt in terms of Article 80(2)(d) of the Constitution;
 - (c) is sentenced to a term of imprisonment in terms of Article 80(2) of the Constitution; or
 - (d) is convicted of an offence referred to in Article 80(2)(f) or (g) of the Constitution,
- the seat of that member shall not become vacant until the expiry of the time within which an appeal may be lodged and where an appeal is lodged, until the appeal is fully disposed of or withdrawn.
- (2) Where the High Court declares the seat of a member of Parliament vacant as a result of a petition lodged under section 8, the decision shall not have the effect of causing that person to vacate his or her seat—
- (a) where no appeal is lodged, until the expiry of the time within which an appeal may be lodged; or
 - (b) where an appeal is lodged, the appeal has been fully disposed of or withdrawn.
- (3) Where as a result of an election petition the election of a person who has been elected is set aside the decision shall not have the effect of causing that person to vacate his or her seat until—
- (a) where no appeal is lodged, the expiry of the time within which an appeal may be lodged; or
 - (b) where an appeal is lodged, the appeal has been fully disposed of or withdrawn.

116. Commission to supervise other elections

The Commission shall have power to oversee and supervise and if requested by the Minister, conduct any election under any enactment preliminary to or directly or indirectly related to any election held or to be held under this Act for the purposes of Article 78(1)(c) of the Constitution.

117. Publication in media

Whenever any matter is required to be published in the Gazette, it shall also as soon as practicable, be published in a newspaper circulating in the relevant area.

118. Power to amend Schedules

- (1) The Minister may, by statutory instrument, with the approval of Cabinet, amend Schedule 1 to this Act.
- (2) The Minister may, by statutory instrument, amend Schedule 2 to this Act.

119. Modification of Act pursuant to change in political system under Article 74 of the Constitution

- (1) Where a new political system is adopted in accordance with Article 74 of the Constitution, the provisions of this Act, and any statutory instruments made under it, shall have effect subject to such modifications as are practical and necessary to give effect to the adoption of the new political system.
- (2) Where a new political system is adopted as referred to in subsection (1), the Minister may, with the prior approval of Parliament, make such regulations as may be necessary for giving effect to the change in the political system for the purposes of this Act and may in particular subject to subsection (1), where necessary, by such regulations, make different provision for campaigning than what is prescribed under this Act.

120. Regulations

- (1) The Minister may, by statutory instrument, on the recommendation of the Commission and with the approval of Parliament, make regulations prescribing any matter which is required or authorised by this Act to be prescribed or which in his or her opinion is necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to the provisions of this Act other than matters to be prescribed by rules of court.
- (2) Without prejudice to the general effect of subsection (1), regulations may be made under that subsection for any or all of the following matters—
 - (a) the form of any document to be used in carrying out any of the purposes of this Act other than forms in proceedings before a court under this Act;
 - (b) the duties of election officers, including the manner of identifying voters for issuing to them of ballot papers and the questions to be put to them;
 - (c) the issuance of voters cards and duplicate voters cards;
 - (d) such measures to be taken in connection with an election as may be desirable or expedient to ensure that—
 - (i) employers provide their employees with an opportunity to vote in any election;
