8. Failure to disclose conviction

Any person who, having been convicted of an offence under this Act, fails to disclose that conviction—

- (a) when applying for employment which places him or her in a position of authority or care of children; or
- (b) when offering or agreeing to take care of or supervise children, commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding three thousand currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or both.

9. Duty to report trafficking in persons

- (1) Every member of the community who knows that any person has committed or intends to commit an offence under this part shall report the matter to the police or other authority for appropriate action.
- (2) Any person who knowing or having reason to believe that a person has committed or intends to commit an offence and does not report to the police or other relevant authority, commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine of five thousand currency points or to imprisonment for a term of six months.

Part III – Protection of victims of trafficking

10. Non-discrimination of victims of trafficking

- (1) Measures for the protection, assistance and support to victims of trafficking shall be interpreted and applied in a way that is not discriminatory to persons on the basis of race, religion, belief, age, family status, culture, language, nationality or gender.
- (2) Any person who applies the measures for protection, assistance and support of victims in a discriminatory manner commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine of five hundred currency points or to imprisonment for a term of six months.

11. Protection, assistance and support for victims of trafficking

- (1) A victim of trafficking shall be legally recognised as such and shall not be penalised for any crime committed as a direct result of the trafficking.
- (2) A victim of trafficking shall be informed in a language that he or she understands about the different stages of any proceedings, and about her or his rights and duties.
- (3) A victim of trafficking shall be assisted to enable his or her views and concerns to be presented and considered at the appropriate stages of the proceedings.
- (4) The institution of criminal proceedings arising from acts of trafficking in persons shall not affect the rights of a victim to pursue a civil case for damages.
- (5) A person instituting proceedings under this section shall be exempted from payment of any filing fees required under the civil procedure laws.

- (6) A victim of trafficking will be accorded the available health and social services, medical care, counselling and psychological assistance, on a confidential basis and with full respect of his or her privacy, in a language she or he understands.
- (7) A victim of trafficking shall be considered for provision of safe and appropriate accommodation and material assistance, where necessary and possible.
- (8) Public officers and any other person involved in the detection, investigation, prosecution or trial of offences under this Act, shall whenever necessary, refer victims to appropriate organisations and institutions for assistance and support.
- (9) The protection, assistance and support to children shall be provided in accordance with their special needs, especially with regard to accommodation, education and care.
- (10) A victim of trafficking shall be entitled to information on the nature of protection, assistance and support he or she is entitled to and the possibilities of assistance and support.
- (11) The protection, assistance and support subscribed in this section shall be provided by Government and other agencies.

12. Confidentiality

- (1) At any stage of the investigation or trial of an offence under this Act, law enforcement officers, prosecutors, judicial officers and medical practitioners, as well as parties to the case, shall recognise the right to privacy of the victim of trafficking.
- (2) For the purpose of subsection (1), proceedings of the court shall be conducted in camera, outside the presence of the media, in cases involving children, sexual exploitation, and other cases where the court considers this appropriate.
- (3) Any editor, publisher, and reporter or columnist in case of printed materials, announcer or producer in case of television and radio, producer or director of a film in case of the movie industry, or any person utilising trimedia facilities or information technology who publishes or causes publicity of the names and personal circumstances or any other information tending to establish the victim's identity without authority, commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine of two hundred fifty currency points.

13. Repatriation of victims of trafficking

- (1) The Minister in cooperation with the appropriate Government agencies shall be responsible for the facilitation of repatriation of victims of trafficking to and from Uganda.
- (2) Where the repatriation of a Ugandan victim is likely to expose the victim to greater risks or to compromise his or her safety, the Minister may through the relevant office negotiate with the host Government for the extension of appropriate residence permits, work permits and maintenance as may be necessary to protect the victim.
- (3) Where the repatriation of a foreign victim is likely to expose the victim to greater risks, or to compromise his or her safety, or where the presence of the victim is necessary for court proceedings, the Minister may facilitate the extension of appropriate residence permits, work permits and maintenance as may be necessary to protect, assist and support the victim.
- (4) On getting notice of a victim of trafficking in a foreign country, the Minister shall verify whether the victim is a citizen or a permanent resident of Uganda and shall, where the victim is proved to be a Ugandan or a permanent resident without proper documentation, issue the relevant documents and other relevant authorisation to facilitate the repatriation of the victim to or from Uganda.

14. Restitution

Where a person is convicted of trafficking in persons under this Act, the court shall, in addition to any other punishment, order that person to pay restitution to the victim or other person or organisation which may have incurred expenses on the victim's behalf for—

- (a) the costs of medical and psychological treatment;
- (b) the costs of physical and occupational therapy and rehabilitation;
- (c) the costs for the necessary transportation, temporary housing and child care;
- (d) the costs of re-integration in society; and
- (e) any other costs that the court may deem fit.

15. Compensation

Where a person is convicted of trafficking in persons under this Act, the court may in addition to any other punishment order that person to pay compensation to the victim for—

- (a) physical injury;
- (b) emotional distress;
- (c) pain and suffering;
- (d) loss or damage; or
- (e) any other damage that the court may deem fit.

16. Absence of victims and court awards

The return of the victim to his or her country, or the absence of the victim from the jurisdiction shall not prejudice the victim's right to receive restitution or compensation.

Part IV – Jurisdiction

17. Jurisdiction

A case under this Act shall be tried where the offence was committed, or where any of its components occurred, or where the trafficked person actually resided at the time of the commission of the offence.

18. Extra-territorial jurisdiction

This Act shall apply to offences committed outside Uganda where—

- (a) a person who, while being a citizen of, or while permanently residing in Uganda, commits an act outside Uganda, which act would constitute an offence had it been committed in Uganda;
- (b) the victim was a citizen of Uganda at the time of the commission of the offence;
- (c) the offence was committed partly inside and partly outside Uganda; or
- (d) a substantial proportion of the effects of the offence have occurred or taken place within the territory of Uganda, provided that—

- (i) no proceedings shall be instituted under this section without the written consent of the Attorney General;

- (ii) if the consent of the Attorney General is received under paragraph (i), proceedings may be instituted in any appropriate court and such court shall have jurisdiction to try the matter as if the offence or offences had been committed within its jurisdiction; and
- (iii) a person shall not be tried for an offence under this section if that person has been acquitted or convicted of the same offence in another country.

19. Extradition

Any person charged with an offence under this Act shall be liable to extradition under the existing extradition laws.

Part V – Prevention of trafficking in persons office

20. Designation of prevention of trafficking in persons office

- (1) The Minister shall designate an office to be responsible for the coordination, monitoring and overseeing the implementation of this Act.
- (2) The designated office shall have the following functions—
 - (a) to formulate a comprehensive and integrated programme to prevent and suppress trafficking in persons;
 - (b) to prepare an annual national plan of action on prohibition of trafficking in persons taking into account activities on prevention, prosecution, and protection;
 - (c) to develop measures and policies to protect, assist and support victims of trafficking, taking particular consideration of the age, gender and special needs of victims of trafficking;
 - (d) to establish a data bank on cases of trafficking in persons and conduct continuing research and study on the pattern and scheme of trafficking in persons which shall form the basis for policy formulation and programme direction;
 - (e) to engage in consultation, coordination, cooperation and advocacy with Governmental and non-governmental organisations, among other entities, to advance the object of this Act;
 - (f) to initiate the training and awareness of Government personnel, law enforcement officials and the public, particularly among risk groups and communities, of the dangers of trafficking and protections that are available for the victims of trafficking;
 - (g) to propose rules and regulations to the Minister as may be necessary for the effective implementation of this Act; and
 - (h) to carry out such other activities as are necessary or expedient for the full discharge of all or any of the functions conferred on it under this Act.

Part VI – Miscellaneous

21. Confiscation and forfeiture of proceeds of trafficking in persons

- (1) In addition to any penalty imposed for the violation of this Act, the court shall order the confiscation and forfeiture of all the established proceeds and properties derived from the commission of the crime.
- (2) Where the proceeds and properties derived from the offence have been destroyed, diminished in value or otherwise rendered worthless by an act or omission, directly or indirectly by the offender or have been concealed, removed, converted or transferred to prevent them from being found or to avoid forfeiture or confiscation, the offender shall be ordered to pay, the amount equal to the value of the proceeds or property.

- (3) All awards of damages and costs of proceedings under this Act shall be paid directly by the offender, and where the offender fails to pay, the damages and costs shall be recovered like a civil debt.

22. Regulations

The Minister may, by statutory instrument, make regulations to effect the implementation of this Act.
